Message

I am very happy that the People's University of Bangladesh is going to celebrate its 2nd convocation ceremony. I congratulate the graduating students, their parents and guardians and all members of the PUB family for their respective roles and share in reaching this phase of milestone in the successful journey of the university ahead. With the establishment of the Private Universities scope for higher studies within the country has increased. It is the responsibility of all of us that they get a good quality education compatible with global society. Let this convocation renew the pledge of all involved in private sector education in Bangladesh to strive tirelessly for continuous quality enhancement in higher learning.

I congratulate the University for holding this convocation.

CONVOCATION SPEAKER

Message

I am very pleased to participate in the 2nd Convocation of The People's University of Bangladesh (PUB). Convocation is a solemn, sacred and purposeful academic exercise of a university. It is a soul of a university; without it, the university loses its moorings. Convocation is an occasion of celebration for the graduates and opportunity for looking forward to a new horizon for the university. I believe The People's University is a dynamic institution constantly adapting to the ever changing world and seeking to blend the pursuit of knowledge and truth with the values and needs of a modern society.

We must reckon that the university instills in young people a sense of self-respect, honour and dignity and cultivates an environment for producing competent, honest and sound leadership that eventually determines the destiny of a nation. I firmly believe that the graduates of this university will keep their endeavors on to meet the challenges of 21st Century and enhance the reputation of the university and also contribute their knowledge and skill to the national development.

I extend my heartiest congratulations to the graduates of 2009 and wish them every success in life.

CHAIRMAN
Board of Governors
The People's University of Bangladesh and Foundation for People's Education

Message

It is really a great pleasure for me that The People's University of Bangladesh (PUB) is holding its 2nd Convocation on February 9, 2010. The institute which was established with a mission and vision to provide quality education to the students coming from middle and lower income strata of the society, has stepped into its 14th year with success.

Within this span of time, it has progressed step by step and now is in a position to compete with other top private universities of the country. The students coming out from here, are in a position to meet the changing demands and challenges of the present global society.

I sincerely and gratefully recognize the role of the Government and the University Grants Commission (UGC) for extending their helping hands in achieving our goals to-date. I also express my profound gratitude to the PUB's Board of Governors (BG), Faculties, Management, parents, guardians and beloved students for their valuable contributions.

Finally, my heartiest congratulations to the graduating students and I wish their fulfillment of ambitions and goals in all spheres of life. They should utilize the knowledge achieved from this institution to face the challenges in the coming days of their lives. Their successful placement in the competitive life of this time will not only be a prize for them but this will also be a matter of pride for us.

May Allah help us all in our further progress.
