2 get life for rape, murder

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

A Dinajpur court yesterday sentenced two persons to life term rigorous imprisonment for killing a woman after rape. The court also fined each Tk1,00,000 to pay the sum to the victim's family members. The convicts are Shamsul Haque, 34, son of late Mafiz Uddin and Hazrat Ali, 55, son of late Abdul Haque of village Saidpur Kallyan Para under Birganj upazila. Md Shamsul Huda, Judge of Women and Children Oppression Prevention Court pronounced the verdict in a crowded courtroom in presence of the accused. According to the court prosecution, the convicts killed a woman after rape in August 17, 2007. Later Mokbul Hossain, son of Siraj Uddin filed a case with Birganj police station accusing the two.

2 held for signature forgery

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

Two people were held yesterday at Thakurgaon Police Superintendent's office on charge of copying Home Minister's signature to get police constable's job. The arrestees are Joyal Abedin, 19, son of Kalimuddin of Piazipara village under Baliadangi upazila and his maternal uncle Sabdul Islam, 25, son of Mohammad Alimuddin of the same village. Officer-in-charge (OC) of Thakurgaon police station told this correspondent that at about 12:30pm the two came to Police Superintendent's office and met with SP BM Harun-or-Rashid. Then they placed an application having recommendation of Home Minister Shahara Khatun. Seeing their suspicious appearance, the SP ordered police to detain them. The arrestees told police that one Abdur Rashid, son of Kaloput of Lahirihat village under Baliadangi upazila of the district assured them of getting Home Minister's recommendation for the job in exchange of Tk 2.5 lakh. The arrestees have already gave him Tk1.40 lakh and rest of the amount was supposed to be paid after getting job.

2 fast food shops fined

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi

A mobile court yesterday fined two fast food shops Tk 80,000 for keeping rotten and stale food and unhealthy conditions, said Rab and BSTI sources. Chilies fast food was fined Tk 50,000 while Meatloaf was fined Tk 30,000 under the Pure Food Act of (amendment) 2005, said Alauddin Hossain, additional director of Rajshahi BSTI. Led by executive magistrate Sayeduzzaman, the mobile court assisted by Rapid Action Battalion and BSTI raided the fast food shops at noon. The court found rotten vegetables in refrigerators of Chilies while there were cockroaches at the kitchen of Meatloaf, said Alauddin.

Villager murdered

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Netrakona

A man was killed and three houses were damaged at Halkakanda village under Durgapur upazila in the district yesterday morning over realising loan money. The deceased was identified as Amir Hossain, 51, a resident of the village. Police and locals said Amir and his neighbour Chand Mia took Tk 10,000 as loan from Kamal of the same village a few months ago. At one stage of hot exchange of words yesterday over the loan money, a group of 20 people led by Kamal attacked the houses of Amir and Chand Mia with sharp and lethal weapons at about 8:00am. They ransacked the houses and killed Amir with sharp weapons. A case was filed with Durgapur police station in this connection but no one was arrested till filing of this report yesterday evening.

Clash over naming of graveyard

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna

At least 10 people, including a police constable, were injured during a clash between the people of two villages over naming of a graveyard in Ishwardi upazila of the district on Monday night.

Police said the trouble began at around 8:00pm when the villagers of Kharjani tried to hang a signboard at the entrance of the graveyard, naming it as Kharjani central graveyard.

Dadpur villagers resisted the bid and had an altercation with the villagers of Kharjani. At one stage, they locked in a clash that continued for two hours. Both sides hurled bricks at each other and used iron rods, sticks and other weapons during the clash, leaving 10 people, including a policeman, injured.

Ishwardi police charged batons, dispersed the clashing groups and took control of the area. Additional police have been deployed in and around the graveyard, which is situated on the border of the two villages.

Of the injured, police constable Eunus Ali and villagers Helal, Imdadul and Insaaf were admitted to Ishwardi Upazila Health Complex while the rest given first aid.

Ishwardi police filed a case in connection with the incident. They arrested 18 people from the two villages yesterday morning.

Housewife murdered for dowry, another commits 'suicide'

STAR NATIONAL DESK

A housewife was killed allegedly by her husband at Jagannathpur village under Khaliajuri upazila in Netrakona while another allegedly committed suicide at Chapainawabganj town yesterday.

Police in Netrakona recovered the body of housewife Anjuman Ara Begum, 25, from a jungle in the morning, reports our correspondent.

Police and family sources of the victim said Anjuman, daughter of Shamim Ahmed was married to Kabir Hossain of the same village three years ago and Kabir used to beat Anjuman for dowry.

Kabir allegedly threatened Anjuman's mother Hasina Begum saying that if they failed to give him Tk 50,000 as dowry within the next three days then he would kill Anjuman.

Hasina claimed that Kabir killed Anjuman as he failed to realise the dowry money.

M o h a m m a d Asaduzzaman, officer-in-charge (OC) of Khaliajuri police station told this correspondent that Kabir is an addict and he used to beat Anjuman for dowry. He might have killed Anjuman and thrown the body into the jungle after her death, the OC added.

A case was filed with Khaliajuri police station in this connection. Kabir fled the locality after the death.

Our Correspondent in Chapainawabganj reports: A housewife allegedly committed suicide at Namoshankarabati Chokapara in Chapainawabganj town yesterday morning.

Hapless Fahima Begum, 22, was wife of Mizanur Rahman of Namoshankarabati Chokapara of the municipal area.

Police and family sources said, following an altercation with her husband at in-laws' house, she committed suicide by hanging at her room at around 9:00 am.

Police recovered the body and sent it to Sadar hospital morgue for autopsy.

An unnatural death (UD) case has been filed with Sadar police station in this connection, said sub-inspector (SI) Ashraful Islam.
