

first Mourning in frame

DHAKA FRIDAY FEBRUARY 26, 2010

YOU ARE MISSED

February 25. No one spoke and no one smiled.

It was the first death anniversary of the martyrs in Pilkhana tragedy. All gathered at the Banani army graveyard in the morning. Some of them family members, relatives and some were friends of the departed persons.

First they watched from a distance the military formalities. When they were allowed to get close to the graves of their dear ones, they broke into tears and cried. They cried out loud for those whom they miss so much.

Photos: ANISUR RAHMAN

