Youth gets life for killing step-mother

Six jailed in two other cases

STAR NATIONAL DESK
A youth was sentenced to life term rigorous imprisonment (RI) in Magura on Thursday for killing his step-mother in 2004.

In two separate murder cases, six others were jailed for life in Kishoreganj and Dinajpur on Thursday and Tuesday.

The additional district and Sessions Judge Mohammad Nazir Ahmed in his verdict in Magura also fined the youth Tk 50 thousand, in default, to suffer one year more RI, reports in Magura correspondent.

The convict was identified as Mofizur Rahman, son of Abdus Salam of Kukna village in Magura municipality area.

According to the prosecution Mofizur beat up his step-mother Elachi Begum, 58, severely leaving her critically injured over family feud on September 19, 2004. On the following day the victim succumbed to her injuries at Magura Sadar Hospital.

A court in Kishoreganj on Thursday sentenced four people to rigorous imprisonment (RI) for life in a sensational murder case, reports our correspondent.

They were also fined Tk 5,000 each, in default, to suffer 6 months more jail.

The convicts are Mukhles, Nayan Mia, Akhter Mia and Selim Mia of the Chandiber Pultankanda area in Bhairab.

According to the prosecution, Abdur Rashid of Ghagrapara village under Isharganj upazila in Mymensingh district used to live with his parents, brother and sister in Chandiber Pultankanda area under Bhairab upazila in Kishoreganj. Neighbour rickshaw puller Mukhles owed Tk 2000 to his younger brother Abdur Rashid.

As Mukhles was not repaying the money they locked a clash some day later. Mukhles took Rashid to an isolated place and killed him with sharp weapon on January 24, 2004. The following day body of Rashid was found under railway bridge of Bhairab.

In Dinajpur, a tribunal on Tuesday sentenced two people to life term imprisonment for killing a girl after rape in 2007, reports UNB.

The convicts are Hajrat Ali, 27 and Shamsul Islam, 32, of Kalyani village in Birganj upazila.

According to the prosecution the convicts killed Fatema Begum of the same village after rape on August 27, 2007.

After examining the records and witnesses Women and Children Repression Prevention Tribunal Judge Shamsul Huda handed down the verdict acquitting three other accused.

Arms peddler caught, pistol, bullets seized

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kushtia

Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) Saturday night injured an arms peddler in a gunshot and arrested him at Bhurkapara village in Daulatpur upazila and recovered arms and ammunition from his possession.

A Rab member also received stab injury as the criminal attacked him during the incident.

Rab sources said, a team from Rab-12 raided the house of Biswed Ali, a suspected arms peddler at the village at about 7:00pm.

Sensing Rab presence, Biswed tried to flee but Rab man Rafiq caught him after a brief chase.

At this, Biswed hit the Rab man with a sharp knife. Rafiq then shot at Biswed's leg and injured him.

Later, Rab recovered a pistol and six bullets from Biswed's house.

Rafiq received injury in his right hand and arm and now undergoing treatment at Kushtia General Hospital.

Bullet hit Biswed, 45, is also being treated at the same hospital under police custody.

In Chuadanga, Rab-6 recovered three firearms and 9 bullets from Jibannagar bus stand area in the town on Friday night.

Acting on a tip-off that a group of arms peddlers were waiting at Sabbir Sweetmeat

Shop at Jibannagar bus stand to sell firearms, a Rab team raided the spot at about 8.30pm.

Sensing Rab presence, the criminals fled the scene leaving a briefcase there.

Opening the briefcase, Rab found two pistols, one shutter gun and nine bullets.

Khulna Shibir man held in connection with murder

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Police on Saturday arrested a cadre of Islami Chhatra Shibir suspecting his involvement in the killing of prominent fish exporter Azad Gazi.

Azad was killed in a bomb attack at his residence on Friday night at Alka village under Phultala upazila.

Arrestee Kazi Enamul Huq Mithu, 28, is son of Hatem Ali of Damodar under the same upazila.

Mithu was remanded for three days yesterday for interrogation in connection with the murder.

Shajahan Gazi, elder brother of the slain fish exporter lodged a complaint with Phultala police station on Friday midnight.

Azad Gazi was killed in bomb attack at 10:20 pm. Police seized a sharp dagger and collected splinters of bomb from the place of occurrence.

"We are looking for another Shibir cadre who planned the murder of the fish exporter", said OC Kamruzzaman.

According to complainant of the case, Azad received three death threats in the last one month from unidentified callers who demanded Tk 10 lakh as toll from him.
