Brent North Sea crude for April delivery eased 23 cents to 80.24 dollars. Oil struggled Monday to extend last week's rally, which was driven by encouraging numbers from the US Labour Department showing a smaller-than-expected fall in non-farm payrolls of 36,000 in February.

The local market traded actively yesterday. USD/BDT rates were stable yesterday. Money market rates traded in the range of 2.5-2.7. Most deals traded around 2.6%. The market was liquid. International Market The yen gained broadly on Tuesday as equity markets fell, promoting a pullback in risk trades and a move into the low-yielding Japanese currency.
