Asian art institutes. He is an expert in water-based woodcut prints and has received several awards for his contribution to the field.

Ueno said, "This is my first visit to Bangladesh. The artists of Bangladesh are very congenial and proud of their heritage and independence. I have been introduced to many artists and art scholars here.

"I think, concept is very important when creating something. I like to focus on human relationships. Works that highlight only colours and compositions do not impress me that much."

Anisuzzaman, coordinator of the workshop and teacher of Printmaking, Faculty of Fine Arts, Dhaka University, said, "I consider this exhibition to be a cultural bridge between artists of Japan and Bangladesh. Japanese prints are technique-based and elaborate. Our printmakers are quite keen on Japanese printmaking. At the workshop, Bangladeshi artists have learnt several methods and techniques."

National Art Gallery, BSA.

Noted Japanese printmaker Shu Ueno and Toshiya Suzuki are conducting the workshop that ends today. Veteran Bangladeshi printmaker Anisuzzaman is the coordinator at the workshop. Participating painters are Rokeya Sultana, Sheikh Mohammad Rokonzaman, Golam Faruk Bebul, Mohammad Jasimuddin, Mokhesur Rahman, Selina Chowdhury Mili, Rezwanur Rahman, Asmita Alam Shammi, Zafor Iqbal Jewel, Kamruzzaman and others.

A weeklong photo exhibition marking Independence Day is on at the Bangladesh Agricultural University (BAU) central library. The exhibition drew a good turnout.

Over 50 rare pictures, mostly taken during the Liberation War at BAU and adjoining areas, are on display at the exhibition. The exhibition ends today (March 31).

BAU Vice-Chancellor Dr. M.A Sattar Mandal inaugurated the exhibition. Among others, students' affairs adviser Dr. Abul Khaer Chowdhury; proctor Professor M o h a m m a d Shamsuddin; registrar Dr. Nazibur Rahman and director of Public Relations and Publication Department, Dewan Rashidul Hasan were present at the inauguration.

A discussion was held to mark the inaugural session.

The speakers said that many students, teachers and employees of the university actively took part in the Liberation War and embraced martyrdom for the freedom of their motherland. The photographs that document that glorious part of our history, demonstrate the significance of BAU in 1971, they went on.

Banglavisision turns four

A CORRESPONDENT

Today TV channel Banglavisision turns four. To mark the anniversary, a press conference was held at Banglavisision office on March 29. CEO of Banglavisision, Mohammad Barkatullah addressed the press conference.

Director of Banglavisision, Ahsanul Bashar; managing director of the channel Mohammad Aminul Haque also shared their views at the press meet.

Special programmes will be aired on the channel marking the day. "Juarir Bou," a TV adaptation of a Manik Bandyopadhyay story by noted director Giasuddin Selim will be aired at 9 am today. Chanchal Chowdhury, Monir Khan Shimul, Richi Solaiman and Tania play the lead roles.

Written and directed by Hridi Haque, tele-film "Hey Rajkonya" will be aired at 2:30 pm. Joya Ahsan, Sajal, Litu Anam and Hridi Haque play the central roles in the tele-film.

Single-episode TV play "Prem Kumar" will be aired at 9:30 pm. Written and directed by Brindaban Das and Kamol Chakma respectively, the play features a cast of actors Chanchal Chowdhury, AKM Hasan, Majnun Mizan, Humaira Himu and others.

Highlight of the day would be the programme "Chitra-Bichitra," aired live from Bangabandhu International Convention Centre from 6:30 pm. "Chitra-Bichitra" will feature interviews of renowned personalities, discussion and performances.
