

PHOTO: PID

Asian-Oceanian Computing Industry Organisation President Looi Kien Leong, second from left, hands over the prestigious 'ASOCIO IT Award' to Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at the inaugural ceremony of BCS Digital Expo-2010 at Dhaka Sheraton Hotel yesterday. (Story on Page 1)

Campus violence won't be tolerated: PM

UNB, Dhaka

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina has said that her government will not allow any sort of campus disturbance for the sake of congenial educational atmosphere.

"We are firmly committed to maintaining discipline on campuses. There will be no tolerance for campus violence and we will be stern in this regard," she said, while addressing a delegation of the Dhaka University Senate at her office yesterday.

Former vice-chancellor of Dhaka University Prof AK Azad Chowdhury led the elected 25-member delegation.

The premier said that the previous BNP-led alliance government totally destroyed the education atmosphere across the country.

She said that her government would do everything possible to maintain a congenial atmosphere in all educational institutions across the country including Dhaka University.

Hasina said her government believed that education is the backbone of a nation.

"No country will be able to advance without proper education," she said.

Press Secretary to the PM Abul Kalam Azad briefed reporters after the meeting.

She mentioned the ongoing power crisis and said that the present government is suffering the outcome of the previous BNP-led alliance government's looting in this sector.

She mentioned that her government places utmost importance on improving the power situation of the country and the scenario would improve in the near future.

The present government would do everything to improve the power situation of the country, she added.

The Senate delegation members praised the PM for her government's innovative steps to improve the quality of education and extended their full cooperation to the development of the education sector.

Advisors to the PM Dr Alauddin Ahmed, Dr Mashiur Rahman, Dr Gawhar Rizvi and PMO Secretary Molla Waheeduzaman, among others, were present.

'Resist plot to foil trial of war criminals'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

humanity and peace," he said.

The CPB leader was speaking at a discussion on 'Trial of war criminals and future of democracy' organised by Bangladesh Pharmaceutical Society at the National Press Club in the city.

He demanded immediate solution to water and power crises prevailing in the capital and elsewhere in the country and controlling of price hike of basic commodities.

Terming the trial a social movement, Karmojibi Nari President Shirin Akhter said the nation would get rid of the stigma.

Iqbal Arslan, general secretary of Swadhinata Chikitshak Parishad, urged the people to cooperate with the government in trying the war criminals. "Agents of the anti-liberation force are hiding in different professions. Please, help the government identify the criminals."

Presided by Prof ABM Faruk, president of Bangladesh Pharmaceutical Society, its General Secretary Selim Azad Chowdhury moderated the meeting.

Bangladesh Federal Union of Journalists president Iqbal Sobahan Chowdhury, Dhaka University Teachers' Association President Prof Khandaker Bazlul Haque, among others, spoke at the meeting.

1200 Service providers, 50 countries & one great big

"2009-Product of the Year"

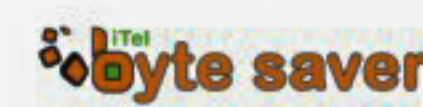

Technology Marketing Corporation's INTERNET TELEPHONY magazine-USA, has honoured us with the 2009 Product of the Year Award for our iTel Mobile Dialer Express.

REVE Systems, a home grown telecom solutions provider with a keen focus in delivering VoIP products & solutions, offers iTel Mobile Dialer Express, which, when downloaded into a mobile phone, allows consumers to make VoIP calls from their mobile handsets.

Currently used by more than 1200 service providers in over 50 countries, iTel Mobile Dialer Express is also compatible with all standard soft-switches and can be used for making voice calls and sending SMS's over IP.

REVE's platform has become the industry leader in the Mobile VoIP segment and has helped many service providers around the world grow their minutes of usage besides giving more choice to consumers.

To know more about our other products, visit: www.revesoft.com

REVE Systems

ZANALA Bangladesh | REVE 2010

আপনার শক্তি আপনার সাথে
জ্বলে উঠুন আপন শক্তিতে

018

মাত্র ৬৮ পয়সা/এসএমএস যেকোনো নম্বরে
রবিবার ২৮ মার্চ থেকে রবিবার ১৯ এপ্রিল ২০১০ পর্যন্ত

একটেল এখন

রবি

an axiata company

atic talkingpoint