USAID POSITION VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT FOR ENGLISH LANGUAGE SPECIALIST/ TECHNICAL WRITER
The United States Agency for International Development (USAID)/Bangladesh invites applications from all qualified US Citizens or Permanent Residents with a valid work permit for employment in country to serve as an English Language Specialist/Technical Writer. S/he fulfills three main responsibilities as follows:
Staff Writer - Editor: The incumbent will ensure that final documents are well organized, follow appropriate formats, contain the required information, and are written in clear and easily understood language. S/he is responsible for drafting factual and interpretive memoranda that provide clear and well-supported recommendations. The types of documents to be written and reviewed span the range from simple correspondence, speeches, and public outreach materials, to complex and lengthy technical documents. The incumbent is also expected to review complex and detailed USAID guidance and conduct limited subject research as required in order to accomplish assignments.
Staff Development: The individual will conduct staff development to increase the overall quality of oral communication skills and first draft written submissions of Mission staff. S/he will develop and implement a training plan for targeted Mission staff, and also through one on one feedback increase the overall quality of staff writing. The incumbent will monitor USAID/Bangladesh's current method of testing English proficiency and provide feedback to Office Directors on staff progress.
Special Projects Coordinator: The incumbent will lead or assist on the preparation of a number of special reporting, planning, or policy documents for the Mission. The incumbent may assist with updating and revising Mission Orders, documents that provide guidance to all Mission Staff.

USAID POSITION VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT
The United States Agency for International Development (USAID)/Bangladesh invites applications from Bangladeshi nationals for recruitment of a Senior Program Specialist (Supervisory Budget Specialist) for the Program Office (PRO) to fulfill the following responsibilities:
1. Host-Country Relations - The incumbent is the Mission's primary liaison with the Government of Bangladesh (GOB) responsible for developing and maintaining positive and effective working relationships with the Ministry of Finance. S/he assists in negotiations on the Mission's bilateral agreements with the GOB, and is expected to provide insight into government processes and political relationships.
2. Program Budget Formulation and Implementation - The incumbent serves as the Program Office's principal program budget expert on matters related to the Agency's budget cycle and pertinent USAID regulations. S/he manages the Mission's annual budget planning processes and provides technical advice on matters including, but not limited to: pre-obligation requirements, country and assistance checklists, fund directives and earmarks, and congressional notifications. The incumbent will supervise staff who are responsible for maintaining the Mission's Budget Information System, tracking Mission program budget requests and allowances, obligations, and providing budget analysis reports in conjunction with personnel from USAID's Office of Financial Management.
3. Mission Strategy and Project Development and Implementation - As the Mission's chief budget advisor, the incumbent plays a key role in the management of the Mission's Strategic Planning process. The incumbent will also serve as a Program Office Backstop, which includes assisting in the drafting of and/or reviewing activity design and approval documents; developing the technical teams' design work plan; and reviewing documents such as monitoring plans.
4. Local Currency Portfolio Management - The incumbent has overall responsibility for the management of the Mission's Local Currency Portfolio and coordinates discussion and program formulation regarding how the funds are used to support government development initiatives.
Required Qualifications:
Applicant must be able to pass security clearance and health screening for fitness to work.
1. Education: The incumbent must have at least a Masters degree in finance, economics, accounting, database/business management or a related field, or its equivalent. Relevant experience can be substituted for the Masters degree for exceptional candidates.
2. Language Proficiency: English reading, writing, and speaking skills are required at a very high level (i.e., Level IV). Fluency in spoken and written Bangla is required.
3. Prior Work Experience: 5-7 years of progressively responsible professional experience in financial management in the public or private sector are required, at least 3 years of which should have been working with or for a foreign government, international NGO, foreign donor agency or foreign company.
4. Knowledge: A thorough and comprehensive knowledge of the principles and accepted practices of budgeting and reporting is required. In addition, the candidate should be familiar with GOB policies and procedures related to the implementation of assistance programs. S/he should have an excellent general understanding of development issues in Bangladesh and how government policies and donor support impact economic and social progress. Familiarity with best practices in project design, development, implementation and/or evaluation is also required.
5. Skills and Abilities: Excellent interpersonal skills, the ability to write in professional English, and ability to work in a team setting are essential skills for this position. In addition, this position requires excellent judgment, sophisticated analytical skills and strong organizational ability. The candidate must also demonstrate the potential to rapidly acquire job specific knowledge of US Government legislation, policies and procedures relevant to development assistance.
For a complete position description, please see www.usaid.gov/bd/employment.html. Interested applicants must submit resume along with a one page cover letter stating level of education and experience that describes incumbent's suitability for this position. Please submit applications to the Human Resources Section, USAID/Bangladesh, GPO Box 2593, Ramna, Dhaka-1000, no later than April 29, 2010. Only short-listed candidates will be notified. D-268
