Students demonstrate love for country

Z. A. M. Khairuzzaman

STUDENTS of Shaheed Lt Selim Shikkhalay have demonstrated their love for the country at a painting competition organised at Mogbazar Modhubag in the city as part of the school's Independence Day functions.

Held on the school premises on Saturday afternoon, celebrated artist, chairperson of Bangladesh Shishu Academy and former director general of (DG) of Bangladesh Television (BTV) Mostafa Monowar graced the occasion as chief guest. He also distributed prizes among the winners on conclusion of the competition. Earlier, students of the school organised a colourful cultural function marking Annual Cultural Function-2010 and Prize Distribution Ceremony at Kochi Kanchar Mela Bhaban at Segun Bagicha in the city. The students shared their patriotic feelings through their skills in acting as well as in dance and music.

Industries Minister Dilip Barua attended the programme as chief guest and distributed prizes among the meritorious students.

Prof Khaleda Khanam, principal of Shaheed Lt Selim Sikshalaya, chaired the occasion and chairman and chief advisor of the school vice principal Aftab Hossain delivered welcome address.

Dhaka University Career Club organises grand anniversary

THE grand anniversary of the Dhaka University Career Club is going to be held from 25th to 27th April 2010 at University of Dhaka. For this the club will arrange a couple of interactive events. There will be six seminars on different topics and a three-daylong job fair at the TSC Ground. A mega concert at the Shadhinota-Shongram yard on 25th April, along with all those events a dinner party will be arranged on 25th April at TSC Cafeteria. The VC of University of Dhaka Dr. AAMS Arefin will be the chief guest of the ceremony. The Pro-VC, Treasurer, deans, different club/association of DU and other respected people will be also present. Star Campus of The Daily Star will be the media partner for the whole event.

"Pahela Baishakh celebration at Summerfield"

ON April 16, Summerfield School and Tiny Tots (junior section) celebrated Pahela Baishakh on its Dhanmondi campus. The school was adorned with multi-coloured traditional decorations and painted potteries. Children from playgroup to class-X all geared up early in the morning to rally with vibrant placards. The event's highlight was the spectacular cultural programme organised by the students of Summerfield. "Esho hey boishakh", "O amar desher mati", "Amra shobai raja" and "Jhor elo elo jhor, aam por aam por" were some of the hits of the show. Students from different classes participated in the songs and dances. A fashion show that displayed the variety of traditional wear put up by the senior students enthralled the audience. There were stalls of various kinds of food and fresh fruits, a galore of exciting 'deshi' items like hand-fan, wooden flutes, jute items, ornaments, bangles, special 'fotuas' and T-shirts painted by the children with 'baishaki' symbols.