Promoting Transparency through Effective Government Communication - Requests for Proposals
Development Alternatives, Inc. (DAI) seeks a qualified Bangladeshi organization to conduct activities to improve transparency and communication by government officials. This work will be contracted under the USAID-funded Promoting Governance, Accountability, Transparency and Integrity (PROGATI) Project.
Objective. Train approximately 160 government officials at the division level in effective and transparent communication practices.
Tasks. The selected organization will complete the following tasks:
• Conduct rapid training needs assessment of division level government officials;
• Develop training module and associated materials;
• Conduct training of a total of 160 division level government officials in "Promoting Transparency through Effective Government Communication." Each training will be of three days duration. Training will be conducted in 8 batches of 20 persons. Two batches will be conducted in each of the following divisions: Khulna, Chittagong, Rajshahi and Barisal.
Proposals. Interested organizations/individuals should submit proposals including the following information [maximum 9 pages]:
1. Cover letter, with address details, contact information and contact person [1 page].
2. Organizational profile, including management structure and staff expertise in related areas of work - needs assessment, module development, and training[3 pages].
3. Qualifications, presenting similar projects related to training government officials and communication expertise undertaken as lead firm in last five years, include information on task and outputs client reference information, and period of engagement [1 page].
4. Method and technical approach, describing how you will conduct the required tasks and including explanation of roles and responsibilities of all persons proposed for the work. Proposals must present 1) the key topics to be included in the training module; and 2) methods for ensuring the training is practical and relevant to the audience.[3 pages].
5. Timeline, with clear duration for entire project and all associated tasks. [1 page]
6. Provide clear and detailed budget estimates for all labor, travel and material costs necessary to complete all tasks [not included in proposal page limits].
Proposals will be assessed on both technical and cost proposals. Technical and cost proposals should be submitted as separate documents. Do not include attachments or promotional documents with your submission. Note that this enlistment does not in any way commit DAI to enter into contact or partnership with any organization.
DAI will host a bidders' conference to answer questions on this RFP on Thursday, 6 May at 10 AM. The meeting will be held at House 54/A, Road 16, Block A, Banani, Dhaka.
Electronic submissions are encouraged, and should be sent to prograti@yahoo.com with "Government Communications" in the subject line. Written submission should be delivered to House 54/A, Road 16, Block A, Banani, Dhaka in sealed envelop addressed to "PROGATI Grants Manager". All submissions are due by 14:00 hours on 16 May 2010. Only short listed organizations/individuals will be contacted.

Field Mission Vacancy Notice
Position : Adviser
Our Client, a Foreign Mission in Bangladesh, is seeking an Adviser to work together with both the diplomatic and local staff. The adviser will provide inputs in the assessments and evaluation of any kind of socio economic and political issues for the consumption of the Mission and will be responsible for the following tasks:
• Research and analyze political, economic and social developments in Bangladesh through newspapers, local contacts etc.
• Write concise analytical reports on current issues (political, economic, social, human rights, governance, gender, environment, climate change etc.)
• Write, edit and correct texts for publication, speeches, statements etc.
• Publish news and events on the website of the Mission
• Translate and occasionally interpret from English to Bangla and vice versa
• Possibility to be engaged in other issues according to the development of the activities of the Mission.
The ideal candidate should have the following qualifications:
• Relevant educational background (i.e. Master in Political Science/International Relations)
• Relevant professional background (at least 3-5 years working experience from an international/multilateral/donor agency or from Government offices with similar capacity)
• Strong analytical capabilities
• High level of interpersonal and communication skills
• Be proactive and have the ability to work independently and in a team
• Flexibility to take on new tasks and challenges
• A high level of computer skills (Word, Power Point, Internet etc.)
• Be fluent in English and Bangla and have excellent writing and editing skills (other languages could also be useful)
• Experience from working or studying abroad will be an advantage
• Maximum age limit 35 years.
If you would like to work in a friendly, challenging and supportive environment in a small intercultural team, with a broad scope for autonomous, challenging, creative and diverse work, and if you are convinced that you are the person we are looking for, then you should apply for the position. The mission has a strong gender profile and would especially encourage women to apply.
Interested persons should send a letter outlining how their skills and experience meet the requirements along with a CV (with at least two references) and passport-size photograph, to the following address by 16 May 2010. Please mention "Application for the post of Adviser" in the subject heading. Note that no telephone calls regarding the above position will be entertained and that only short-listed candidates will be contacted for interview.
