Rabindra festival begins today

A CORRESPONDENT

To commemorate the 149th birth anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore, Bangladesh Rabindra Sangeet Shilpi Sangstha is holding a five-day programme, starting from today in Dhaka. The festival includes recitation, dance and musical soiree. Professor Emeritus Anisuzzaman will inaugurate the festival at Shawkat Osman Memorial Auditorium, Central Public Library, Shahbagh in Dhaka.

On the occasion a press conference was held at the National Press Club on May 2. Bangladesh Rabindra Sangeet Shilpi Sangstha general secretary Tapan Mahmud; joint secretaries Sajed Akbar, Salma Akbar, Fahim Hossain Chowdhury and the festival sponsor Banglalink's assistant manager Rashed Hasan, among others, spoke at the press conference. More than 150 artistes from 15 organisations from all parts of the country will perform at the festival.

Capturing moments, framing lives

Group photography exhibition by BBC Buzz

JAMIL MAHMUD

A group photography exhibition titled "Capturing Moments, Framing Lives" is being held at Drik Gallery, Dhanmondi, Dhaka. The exhibition, jointly organised by the TV show "BBC Buzz" and Drik Gallery, started on April 30 and features 15 selected photographs on five different themes.

The selected themes are heroes, summer, colour, women at work and sport. Showcasing some promising, young photographers, the exhibition is a collection of images that offer an unseen and fresh perspective on everyday life in Bangladesh.

The display features the best entries from a national photography competition hosted by "BBC Buzz". The selected fifteen photographs are a culmination of the winners and runners-up from the competition.

Three photos on each theme diversify familiar yet uncommon stories of everyday life. The theme 'Heroes' depicts people who struggle everyday to live and earn. Workers at a brickfield in Dhaka and a farmer from Khulna have been photographed by Tauhidul Islam and Kabir Hossain.

Three photographs on the theme 'Women at Work' once again narrate stories of the deprived working class women of the country. Bappy Roy has taken a photo in Sathkira, showing women working in the field, harvesting crops.

The themes 'Colour' and 'Sport' show some joyous moments. Naima Rahman's photo capturing the celebration of Nabanno (harvest) in Narail and Mohir Uddin's image of the traditional 'Gorur Dour' (ox-cart race) are on the theme 'Sport'. Imran Choudhury's photo delineating the essence of spring from Bandarban and Afzal Nazim's photo of a drop in a paint-pot depict the theme 'Colour'. Md. Didarul Alam's photo of two boatmen from Kumira beach, Chittagong and Yadil Islam Raju's image featuring a group of children diving from a bridge into the Buriganga river are part of the 'Summer' collection.

Inauguration of the exhibition was marked by speeches from director of Drik Gallery Shahidul Alam, artist Mustafa Monwar and BBC World Service Trust Bangladesh Country Director Allan Freedman.

"BBC Buzz" is part of English in Action, an initiative to raise the language skills of 25 million people in Bangladesh by 2017, funded by UKaid from the Department for International Development.

The exhibition will run till May 6.

Mahi on tonight's "Raat Biratey"
