Kuet classes resume

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Classes and all academic activities of Khulna University of Engineering and Technology (Kuet) will resume today. On the other hand, all the six dormitories of the university were reopened yesterday. According to Public Relations Officer Abdur Rahman, most of the students came to their dormitories by 3:00pm yesterday. The six dormitories are resided by over 1500 students including one by women. Kuet remained closed since April 12 following a fierce clash between students loyal to Chhatra League and Chhatra Dal on the campus. The decision to resume classes and reopen dormitories was taken at a meeting of council of teachers held on May 6 with the vice chancellor (VC) in the chair. The meeting decided to continue ban on political activities, meetings, processions and pasting of posters on the campus.

Four bombs recovered

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Brahmanbaria

Four hand-made bombs were recovered from the yard of Akhaura upazila Awami League (AL) secretary Gazi Abdul Matin's village home at Kudda village under Bashudeb union in Sadar upazila yesterday. According to locals and police, a group of criminals hurled five hand-made bombs onto Gazi Abdul Matin's house. One bomb exploded with a big bang while four others remained unexploded. On information, a team of Rab and police headed by Brahmanbaria Sadar OC Md Hamidul Islam rushed to the spot and recovered four unexploded bombs from the yard. Contacted, Gazi Abdul Matin said he believes the bombs were hurled by a section of party rivals. No case was filed till filing of the report.

Three jailed for snatching

UNB, Narayanganj

A tribunal here Thursday convicted three snatchers and awarded them five years rigorous imprisonment each for snatching in 2009. The convicts are Ilias Kanchan, Ershad Ali and Kalam. According to the prosecution, the three muggers coming in a truck intercepted a passerby, Afzal, and looted cash and a mobile phone set from him in Dhuppara Bajbi area of Araihazar upazila on September 30 at about 5:00am. When a van of patrol police came to the spot, the muggers threw two bombs on them. Later, the law enforcers after a hot chase arrested them. Police also recovered the snatched money and mobile phone sets and three sharp weapons from their posses-

Robber held in Narsingdi

UNB, Narsingdi

Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) personnel after a shootout arrested one robber from Bhatpara Balur Math area of Polash upazila early Saturday. The arrested was identified as Based Mia, 35, of Belabo upazila. Being tipped-off by locals, a team of the elite force conducted the drive in the area when a gang of robbers were taking preparation for committing robbery. Sensing the presence of the Rab members, the gang opened fire on them forcing the law enforcers to return fire that left Based bullet injured critically. His accomplices, however, managed to flee the scene. He was sent to a local hospital under police escort. A Rab member was also injured in the shootout.

Locals stage roadblock

UNB, Munshiganj

Locals blocked the Dhaka-Munshiganj road for one hour yesterday demanding removal of a barbed-wire fence that has been erected around Mukterpur bridge. Several hundred people gathered with placards and banners, questioning why the bridge was being fenced in, after so much land had been confiscated from locals for building it. They brought out a procession and put up barricades in Mukterpur in Sadar upazila causing long traffic jams on both sides of the highway. The demonstrators alleged that their normal communication is hampered due to the barbed-wire fence. Later they withdrew the barricade at about 9:00am after the authorities assured them of meeting their demand.

Boiler blast kills one

A CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

A day labourer was killed and another two were injured critically as a boiler exploded at Bachchu Khan's rice mills in Bosundhara area in the town yesterday morning. Victim Mazibar

Rahman,42, was son of late Taher Ali of Dalal Tari in the Injured Asadul Islam,40, and Belal Hossain,35, are fighting for life at Lalmonirhat Sadar Hospital.

Locals said, three labourers were boiling paddy and turmeric at the mills since dawn. The boiler exploded at around 11:00 am killing Mazibar on the spot.

Locals alleged that the boiler exploded as it was set up in an unplanned way with low quality materials.

The death of Mazibar upset his mother Zohura Bewa, wife Rozina Khatun and two children Rezaul, and Mim, as the victim was the lone bread earner, they said.

Meanwhile, the mill owner neither visited the spot nor met Mazibar's family after the incident, locals said.

Health services in Barisal division in dire straits

60 pc posts of doctors vacant for long

UNB, Barisal

Public health services in Barisal division are limping as about 60 percent posts of doctors are lying vacant since long.

Divisional health directorate office sources said at least 526 posts of physicians out of 889 are lying vacant in six districts of the division.

Only 374 doctors are serving for about 97 lakh population of the division with a ratio of one doctor for average 27 thousand people.

People of remote coastal areas of Patuakhali, Bhola and Barguna districts are the worst sufferers. Barisal divisional health director Dr Khairul Anam said there are 889 sanctioned posts of doctors for 32 health complexes, 70 health centres, one 30-bed and four 10-bed and 20-bed specialised health complexes and 5 Sadar hospitals in 40 upazilas in six districts of the division.

However, 115 posts of

Patuakhali, 104 out of 152 posts in Bhola, 95 out of 134 posts in Barguna, 88 out of 195 posts in Barisal Sadar, 75

doctors out of 176 in out of 137 posts in Pirojpur, 49 out of 95 posts in Jhalakati remained vacant. The divisional health director further said that the government has taken up a plan to develop public health services in Barisal division by filling up the vacant posts of physicians immediately. He also said that the government under a scheme will create sufficient posts of medical assistants and assistant surgeons increasing 30bed health complexes to 50bed full fledged hospitals in near future.
