CEPHALON INTERNATIONAL

USAID Position Vacancy Announcement
The United States Agency for International Development/Bangladesh (USAID) invites applications from Bangladeshi nationals for the position of Project Management Specialist for the Mission's Office of Population, Health, Nutrition and Education (PHNE).
The Project Management Specialist is a recognized expert in the field of Public Health in Bangladesh, particularly in primary health care service delivery and capacity strengthening in the NGO and the public sectors. He/she serves as a principal advisor and assistant to the Director and Deputy Director of PHNE in providing substantive advice and support in the formulation and administration of USAID Bangladesh's Population, Health and Nutrition program of USAID, Bangladesh. He/she is instrumental in the conception, design, development, negotiation and implementation of highly visible and critical projects which directly impact on the success in achieving USAID's goals and objectives in the health sector.
The incumbent serves as Contracting Officer's Technical Representative (COTR) and Agreement Officer's Technical Representative (AOTR) for designated projects related to health service delivery and institutional capacity strengthening in the NGO, private and public sector health care programs.
He/she is responsible for the administration and management of assigned projects to ensure that objectives are achieved in accordance with program descriptions and approved work plans and budgets. He/she will also manage activities funded through USAID/Washington contracting mechanisms and liaise with headquarter counterparts.
The incumbent is PHNE's chief liaison with the Government of Bangladesh.
He/she ensures open lines of communication and collaboration with all the government ministries and other stakeholders. He/she will coordinate with the GOB, other donors and stakeholders to ensure maximum impact of USAID's investment in the health sector.

Required Qualifications: Applicants must be able to pass security clearance and health screening for fitness to work. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.
Education: Masters degree in Public Health or other relevant subject required.
Language Proficiency: Fluency in spoken and written Bangla is required.
English reading, writing, and speaking skills are required at a very high level (Level IV). The candidate should have a demonstrated capacity to communicate complex policy, strategy, and program issues orally and in writing in a clear, concise, and well-organized manner.
Prior Work experience: Five to seven years of progressively responsible professional or program experience in public health is required. At least three years experience in development assistance or related work for host government, foreign government, other donor agencies, host-government organizations or the private sector is required. Experience working with NGO and/or public sector health programs and liaising with the government is required. Significant experience in NGO programming is desirable. Leadership and senior level management expertise to interact with GOB policy makers and program managers, donors, and support program implementation are needed.
Knowledge: Thorough knowledge of concepts, techniques and practices of family planning and primary health care delivery in developing countries is required. Must have thorough knowledge and understanding of: NGO and GOB health programs and management; GOB organizational culture, structure, policies, and development priorities; GOB inter-ministerial relations and how Ministry of Health and Family Welfare functions within and between various GOB entities. Knowledge of best practices in designing, implementing, monitoring and evaluating health program is highly desirable. Should have or be able to acquire a thorough knowledge of US development assistance, programming policies, regulations, procedures and documentation.
Skills and Abilities: Ability to plan, organize, manage and evaluate complex projects is required. The ability to draft factual and interpretive reports covering complex subject-matter is required. Ability to exercise good social and professional judgment, excellent interpersonal and communication skills in cross cultural and multi-level settings. Ability to establish and maintain effective contacts with senior government officials, donors and other partners. Ability to work within a team setting with minimum supervision. Ability to provide intellectual explanations on any policy issues related to GOB and foreign government programs. Ability to handle sensitive policy matters with the GOB diplomatically in order to make the program more results oriented.
Interested applicants must submit a resume alongwith a one page cover letter stating level of education, experience, etc. that describes key experiences and perspectives which demonstrate how they qualify for this position. Please submit to the Human Resources Section, GPO Box. 2593, Ramna, Dhaka-1000, no later than June 6th, 2010. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.
