

HARVEST TIME

The biggest harvest in the country is at its peak. The better the yield, the wider the smiles on farmers' faces. Farmers along with labourers are spending busy time in fields harvesting and carrying and threshing crops.

They share meals with labourers as if life has been always fair to them. The sight and fragrance of new rice make the farmers of our country more resilient and forget the challenges they faced during the long dry spell this year.

Photo: ANISUR RAHMAN

