Awareness programme launched to end family violence

Chapainawabganj Gambhira as a social instrument

AHMED HUMAYUN KABIR TOPU, Pabna

The traditional "Chapainawabganj Gambhira" is being used as an instrument to generate public awareness against family violence. NGO Proyash Manobik Unnayan Society began the five-day campaign with the theme, "Guide children through love" on Wednesday.

The programme was inaugurated at Tebunia Wasim Pathshala. The artistes of Chapainawabganj performed traditional Gambhira (folk songs) at the school premises. A discussion by the teachers and the organisers was held at the same venue.

"The children of our society often do not get a proper environment for their development due to family violence. This has to be dealt with. The family bond is decaying by the day, which hampers the children's mental growth. We have to uphold the family unit for the sake of our future generation," said Mohammad Hasib Hossain, executive director of Proyash.

"Through these programmes we are trying to generate public awareness on the issue in educational institutions to generate awareness among school children," he added.

A similar programme was held at Pabna Town Hall premises on Wednesday evening. The artistes performed Gambhira (conversation of a grandfather and grandson) that focused on social injustice towards women and children within a family.

The programme was later held at Sarabaria High School premises of Atgoria upazila and Maniknagar High School premises in Ishwardi upazila and in different educational institutions in Chatmohar and Bhangura upazilas under the district.

All-rounders to judge Marks All-rounder-'10

A CORRESPONDENT

Jewel Aich. We know him as a great magician. But many of us probably don't know that he is an adept flute player as well. He developed a deep passion for flute from his early days.

Her full name is Tuhin Ara Aupee Karim and her pet name Aupee Karim. Aupee is not only a noted actress and model; she is also a good dancer. As if this isn't enough, she is an architect as well.

Habib Wahid is one of the happening and popular singers of Bangladesh. He is also a composer and notable for his fusion of traditional Bengali folk music with contemporary techno and urban beats.

Now these three all-rounders will judge the performance of 33 final contestants of Marks All Rounder. At a press conference in Fantasy Kingdom, Tasnim A Karim Chowdhury introduced them to journalists and the audience.

Banff Mountain Film Festival World Tour 09/10 comes to Dhaka

The Banff Mountain Film Festival, an international film competition featuring the world's best footage on the subject of mountains, begins in Dhaka, says a press release.

The festival will be held for two days at the Seminar Hall, Business Faculty, University of Dhaka. A total of 25 films-- most of 10 - 15 minutes duration-- will be screened at the festival. The screening will begin at 4pm on both days. Kewkradong Bangladesh, an adventure and advocacy group is organising the event.

The festival is held annually in November in Banff, Alberta, Canada. After the festival, the best films are selected for the Banff Mountain Film Festival World Tour, which is attended by roughly 200,000 people in 30 countries.

The two-day festival will feature action, environmental and adventure mountain films that offer an exhilarating exploration of the mountain world. The screening is open for all.

TV Watch

"Tie-Breaker" on the horizon

A CORRESPONDENT

After successfully airing the single-episode cricket-based drama "T-20", Tarique Muhammad Hasan is now making his second TV play, titled "Tie-Breaker", to be aired on the World Cup football tournament.

National Football Team captain Aminul Islam; striker Zahid Hasan Emily, former national team captain Ariful Islam Joy, manager of Mohammedan Sporting Club, Amirul Islam Babu and Nigerian player Bukola of Mohammedan Sporting Club will perform in the play.

The shooting is due to begin on June 9 at Bangabandhu National Stadium, Cox's Bazar and different locations of Dhaka city.

Writer and director of the play, Tarique Muhammad Hasan told The Daily Star that for the first time, the national football players are performing in a television play.

Footballers; from field to film. In my first television drama, titled 'T-20', national cricket player Ashraful played the central role. In 'Tie-breaker', goalkeeper Aminul and striker Emily will play the roles they play during a match."
