One youngster's dream came true: fireworks lit up the night sky above Bangabandhu National Stadium, marking the crowning of Nusrat Zuhuri Pranti, the winner of 'Meridian-Channel i Khudey Gaan Raaj 2010.'

On June 10, Bangabandhu National Stadium was decked with colourful decorations and a huge stage was set up at one corner of the field; the finale of 'Khudey Gaan Raaj' promised to be a grand affair.

And what a finale it was -- with no broken heart or shattered dream. A hint of the results could be found in noted author Humayun Ahmed's speech. "It is very hard for me to bear the tears of children," said Ahmed as he took the stage prior to the announcement of the results.

"Each and every one of you present here today deserves to be 'Khudey Gaan Raaj'," said Shaon. "The only thing that might be the deciding factor is the favour of luck," she added. The young contestants did have their share of good fortune; with the SMS votes from audience combined with the scores given by the judges -- Humayun

Ahmed and Shaon, it was ensured that none of the top five would go home empty handed. Anonna Raj and Raju Ahmed Rana were announced as the first runners-up and the title for the second runner-up jointly went to Tanisha Islam Sheniz and Apurbo Bashona.

"It's really a great show. I have never seen anything like this where no one goes home empty handed," said Abidur Rahman from the audience at the programme.

Among others, Faridur

Reza Sagor, managing director, Impress Telefilm Limited and Channel i; Shykh Seraj, head of news, Channel i; S.M. Kamal Pasha, managing director, Meridian Foods Ltd; officials from Crown Cement, Citycell, Fantasy Kingdom, Japan Bangladesh Friendship Hospital and other organisations were present on the stage during the award giving ceremony.

As the title winner, Pranti received a cash prize of Taka 5 lakh. The first and the second runners-up were given Taka 3 lakh and 2 lakh. The cash prizes were provided by Crown Cement.

The top eleven contestants of 'Khudey Gaan Raaj' will also receive special prizes from Fantasy Kingdom, a monthly scholarship of Tk 3,000 from Citycell and life-long free medical treatments at Japan Bangladesh Friendship Hospital.

Humayun Ahmed said, "It doesn't matter who won the title tonight, each of you have received prizes so there is something for everyone."

Major attraction of the event was the concert, which began with a vibrant display of fireworks followed by a dance performance involving some 300 children.

Each of the finalists -- Sheniz, Pranti, Rana, Annona and Bashona -- presented their final solo performances and duets with renowned artistes -- Bappa Majumder, Khurshid Alam, Akhi Alamgir, Balam and Syed Abdul Hadi.

The grand finale was aired live on Channel i from 7:30 pm.

Information Minister Abul Kalam Azad; Industries Minister Dilip Barua; State Minister for Youth and Sports Ahad Ali Sarkar and Zahid Ahsan Russell, chairman of Parliamentary Standing Committee on Youth and Sports Ministry also attended the event.

Spanish Cultural Centre opens in Dhaka

The Spanish Cultural Centre was inaugurated on June 9 at Banani in the city, according to a press release. The Spanish Ambassador to Bangladesh Arturo Perez Martinez presided over the inaugural programme. State Minister for Cultural Affairs Advocate Promod Mankin was the chief guest at the programme, while noted Bangladeshi expatriate painter Monirul Islam was present as special guest. Faer Mahmud, head of the Spanish Cultural Centre, was also present.

Mankin said, "Bangladesh and Spain have a long, successful relationship and the centre will help reinforce the friendship between the two countries."

Ambassador Martinez expressed the hope that the Bangladesh government would play a significant role in the development of the centre. He pointed out that Spain is a reliable partner of Bangladesh in development cooperation and the cultural centre will help on this front.
