

PEACEFUL CCC ELECTION

The Chittagong City Corporation election was held amid a festive mood yesterday. Although voters turned up in large numbers, presence of voters was thin at some polling centres in the morning. Awami League-backed Nagorik Committee candidate ABM Mohiuddin Chowdhury cast his vote at Ahmad Mia Primary School centre while his rival BNP-backed Chattagram Unnayan Andolan candidate Mohammad Manjur Alam cast his vote at Uttar Kattoli Haji Daud Ahmed Primary School centre. Elderly people and persons with disabilities also turned up to vote. A large number of women voters, too, exercised their franchise. Besides, electronic voting was also held at 14 polling centres for the first time.
