Nagarik's "Opekkhoman" to be staged today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Nagarik Natya Sampradaya will stage its latest production "Opekkhoman" at the Experimental Theatre Hall, Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy this evening at 7pm. Based on works of Ibsen, Rabindranath Tagore and Syed Shamsul Haq, the play was premiered at the International Ibsen Seminar and Theatre Festival last year. Today marks the sixth show of the play.

"Opekkhoman" merges two Ibsen plays -- "A Doll's House" and "An Enemy of the People" -- with Haq's "Irsha." There is also an influence of Tagore in the play. Veteran theatre personality Ataur Rahman is the director of the production.

The play features conversations among protagonists of three plays at a railway station called 'Achintyapur.' The three characters -- Nora from "A Doll's House," Dr. Stockman from "An Enemy of the People" and the elderly man from "Irsha" -- have lost their social standing and decided to start anew.

Ataur Rahman, Pantho Shahrier and Aupee Karim enact the characters. Apart from Nora, Aupee Karim also enacts two other roles in the play -- an unnamed young woman (from "Irsha") and Dr. Stockman's wife (from "An Enemy of the People").

About the production, Aupee Karim said, "This play is an ongoing lesson for me, as I'm learning something new from each show."

Md. Nasirul Haque and Farhad Uddin Masum are the technical director and set designer of the play.

Falguni Hamid appointed as director of Shishu Academy

Actress Falguni Hamid has been appointed as director of Bangladesh Shishu Academy, says a press release. The seasoned actress has also been involved with journalism for 15 years. She completed Masters in Bangla from the University of Dhaka.

Hamid played several memorable roles in TV plays. Her character Rina in the BTV serial "Dhaka-e Thaki" was hugely popular. Apart from acting, she has also been writing, directing and producing radio, TV and stage plays.

At present, Hamid runs the magazine Shimontini, on women and children's issues. Hamid will take charge of her new post on June 20.

Phil Collins honoured by Songwriters Hall of Fame

AP, New York

Phil Collins, one of the honoured recipients at the Songwriters Hall of Fame gala, says that he hopes such accolades are not foreboding.

Collins said on the red carpet Thursday night that when artistes his age start winning awards, "you think people have been in touch with the doctors."

Collins was honoured with the Johnny Mercer Award, named after the legendary songwriter and founder of the Songwriters Hall of Fame.

Collins says he takes the award seriously, like an Oscar or a Grammy.

This year's inducted songwriters include Leonard Cohen, Jackie DeShannon, David Foster, and Earth Wind & Fire.

Young songwriters also were recognised, with Taylor Swift receiving the Hal David Starlight Award.

"Rong-er Dunia" ends on Banglavisision

A CORRESPONDENT

With the final episode Banglavisision's drama serial "Rong-er Dunia" comes to an end tonight at 9:05 pm. The serial was written and directed by Hassan Jahangir.

The play revolves around two rural landlords and their struggles for power. One of them invites a band from Dhaka to perform at his daughter's birthday party. Seeing an opportunity to ruin the party, his rival offers the band more money and asks them to perform at his house instead. With hilarious incidents their rivalry becomes an enjoyable affair. The serial will also end on an entertaining note.

The play features ATM Shamsuzzaman, Mamunur Rashid, Dr Enamul Haque, Joy, Hassan Masud, Litu Anam, Pran Roy, AKM Hassan, Humaira Himu and Kochi Khondokar in central roles.
