He respects his elders and takes care of his younger sister. He never tells lies. So, everyone loves him very much.

What is your Headmaster/Headmistress like? Write about his/her personality in your diary.

C. Do you want to know about children from other countries? Read below:

Hello! My name is Joshua and I live in Australia. I am 8 years old and I love to spend time with my mom. I have fair complexion (skin colour) and blue eyes. I usually wear shirts, trousers, pants and T-shirts.

Konichiwa (Hello), my name is Takashi and I am from Japan. I have fair skin but black hair. I am quite short and my eyes are narrow and small. My face is round. Our clothes are very colorful and bright. I have a small garden just outside my house and I like spending a lot of time working there.

Meeng-gah-bou (Hello)! I am Brian Ganga from West Indies. I am 12 years old. My face is oval-shaped. I have short curly hair and dark complexion. My teeth are sparkling white and my friends like my smile a lot. I am very tall. I like playing and watching cricket.

Assalamu alaikum, I am Atiya and I am from Saudi Arabia. I have fair complexion, black hair and brown eyes. Women here wear a long robe which is called abaaya and a scarf to cover the head. As our weather is pretty hot most of the time, I play a lot of indoor games with my younger brother. I like going shopping on weekends with my mother.

Air Pollution is threatening our life ...

Carbon emission from industries, brick fields and vehicles is making lives vulnerable. Emission of CFC and CO₂ are also posing new threat to our life. It is time to act vigorously to stop polluting the air.

Let's breathe fresh air.
