

Five sued for implicating shrimp trader in false case

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Sathkira

Five people including a district level BNP leader have been sued for implicating a shrimp trader in a false case.

The deputy assistant director (DAD) of Rab-6, Amir Hossain filed the case with Sadar police station accusing the five yesterday.

The accused are district BNP leader and Alipur union chairman Abdur Rouf, his son Abdus Selim, Kabir Hossain Bhutto, son of Abdul Mazed and Enamul Haque, a staff of brick kiln owned by accused Rouf of village Alipur in Sadar upazila and Amirul Islam, son of Miaraj Gazi of village Shakhir in Debhata upazila.

The complainant alleged that on May 21 night the accused had planted firearms at the house of shrimp trader Shafiqul Islam who happens to be a local Awami League (AL) leader at village Nathuardanga in Sadar upazila. The accused wanted to implicate Shafiqul in a false arms case, the complainant added.

Earlier, Rab personnel picked up Amirul Islam, Kabir Hossain Bhutto, Nuruzzaman Paltu and Haduzzaman Badsha on July 13 suspecting their involvement in the incident.

During interrogation at Rab headquarters in Uttara, Dhaka, Amirul and Bhutto admitted to their involvement with the misdeed saying, they did it at BNP leader Rouf's dictation.

After planting the firearms,

Amirul, Selim and Bhutto informed Rab men who raided Shafiqul's house on May 21, the Rab official said.

However, three other accused went into hiding, Sadar police station officer-in-charge (OC) Shah Jahan said. "We are trying to arrest them," he said further adding, the two arrestees were brought to Sathkira police station early yesterday.

Mentionable, agitated villagers confined the Rab team in a room for about eight hours following the raid at the house of the innocent shrimp trader on May 21.

As the Rab officials regretted and assured the villagers punishment to the culprits, the villagers freed them on May 22 morning.

APATHY TO AILING STUDENT

College girls agitate, confine principal to hostel room

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Faridpur

The students of Government Sarada Sundori Mohila College staged a demonstration on the campus protesting alleged irregularities of the college authorities and demanding removal of the principal.

Around 300 angry students confined the principal, hostel superintendent, assistant hostel superintendent at the common room of their hostel for two hours on Wednesday night demanding fulfillment of their 10-point demand.

They also gave a 24-hour ultimatum to the college authorities for removal of the principal. On information, Faridpur deputy commissioner (DC) Helaluddin Ahmed and district administration officials rushed to the spot along with a large contingent of police and freed the teachers from confinement.

The students alleged that a third year student of the Social Welfare department suddenly fell sick on Sunday while watching the FIFA World Cup final match. Instantly, they informed the matter to hostel super Yasin Molla for shifting her to a hospital for treatment. On denial, the students informed the matter to the principal for proper care of the sick girl. But the principal also did not pay heed to their appeal.

Finding no other alternative, they rushed their friend to one hospital to another for treatment. Finally, they succeeded to admit her to Faridpur General Hospital.

However, no teacher visited the ailing student at the hospital. "Even the principal showed apathy to the sick girl and behaved roughly," the students alleged.

Afterwards, the students got united and placed their 10-point demand to the principal on Wednesday.

The demands include proper treatment to the ailing student, improved services at the dining room and canteen, checking visitors' entry, separate toilets for night guards, 24-hour TV watch, easy exit and entry of students to the hostel etc. As the principal turned down their demands, the students chanted slogans against the college authorities.

At this, principal Mahfuzur Rahman along with hostel superintendent Yasin Molla and assistant hostel superintendent Jalil Munshi invited the students to discuss the matter at the hostel common room. But the agitated students confined them for two hours from 8:30 pm.

Following intervention of the DC, the teachers were freed. Later, the DC assured the students to fulfill their demands.
