Folk art in focus

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna

Samira Abbasi, daughter of renowned singer Mustafa Zaman Abbasi was accorded a reception in Pabna on Friday. The reception was sponsored by a literary magazine published from the district. A discussion and cultural programme was also held.

Prominent writers and poets of the district spoke on the occasion.

"Folk art is the art of soul and soil. The blending of the ethereal and human soul is the main feature of the folk arts. We have to realise the metaphysical aspect of folk arts," said Samira. She lamented the fact that with modernisation, folk arts had lost their popular appeal.

Prominent folk singer of the district Tofazal Hossain Bayati gave a riveting performance. The speakers came on stage in the intervals of the music renditions and expressed the hope that people would continue to value folk art. Poets Afroza Sultana Jhora, Meghla Akter, Jannatul Fardouse and Rosy Sultana recited poems.

Later, a cultural programme was held in the Pabna Sammillito Sangskritik Jote office on Friday night. Samira Abbasi performed folk music on the occasion.
