

FACTIONAL CLASHES

Sylhet JCD activist dies, 12 injured in Noakhali

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Sylhet JCD activist Sourav succumbed to injuries while 12 people were injured as JCD factions clashed in Noakhali yesterday.

Struggling for 12 days with life support, JCD activist schoolboy Sourav Ahmed Babu, 17, who sustained serious injuries in an attack by rival faction, died at a private hospital in Sylhet city early yesterday, reports our staff correspondent.

On July 22 evening, rivals called Sourav out of his house at Hazrat Shahjalal (RA) Upshahar and took him to the nearby Adarsha High School. There they gave him a good beating with steel pipe and threatened with dire consequences for being with their rival faction.

Sourav was immediately admitted to the Sylhet MAG Osmani Medical College Hospital, where from he was shifted to the Jalalabad Ragib-Rabeya Medical College Hospital in Sylhet. Later he was taken to the Apollo hospitals in the capital.

While Sourav's friends were shifting him by an autorickshaw from the Osmani hospital on the following day they also came under attack by a group of 10 to 12 near the Bluebird High School & College in the city. During the attack Sourav sustained head injuries.

Sourav was given life support at Apollo hospitals. On Sunday, he was brought back to a private hospital in Sylhet where he breathed his last at 2am yesterday.

Sourav's mother Monwara Begum filed a case with the Sylhet Kotwali PS on July 26 accusing nine people.

However, none of the accused has yet been arrested, said the investigation officer of the case Sub-Inspector Mohammad Ali of the police station.

In Noakhali, at least 12 people including Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) district unit president Nurul Amin Khan were injured in an attack by rival faction in town hall area yesterday afternoon.

Nurul Amin was admitted to Dhaka Medical College and Hospital in a critical condition, reports a correspondent.

Of the injured, Kamrul Islam and Russel were admitted to Noakhali General Hospital, while Shahin, Babu, Sobuj, Ripon, Iqbal and others were admitted to different clinics of the town.

Sources said at around 12:00pm, president and organising secretary of newly elected committee of city JCD brought out a victory procession from bus stand point of the town.

When their rally reached town hall area, a group of supporters of vice-president Abdul Motin attacked on the processionists with lethal weapons.

They hit Nurul Amin in his head and legs and stabbed him indiscriminately, leaving him seriously injured.

Besides, eleven others were also injured during the attack. The attackers also vandalised two passenger buses.

Police arrested four people including two students from the spot.

Rape of schoolgirl sparks protest in Gaibandha

Tasin's 'killers' on 3-day remand

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gaibandha

Hundreds of people of Ramchandrapur union under Sadar upazila yesterday formed a human chain at Balua Bazaar demanding immediate arrest and punishment to a rapist.

Organised jointly by the Committee for Protection of Human Rights and Shacheton Nagorik Gosthi, the human chain was held on Balua-Gaibandha road for about an hour.

Police said a student of class five and 11-year old daughter of Rostum Ali came to visit her relatives at village Parvatipur in Sadar upazila. On Monday morning when she was playing on the ground of nearby primary school, local unruly youth Mithu, 20, son of Mojibar Rahman tactfully took her to a lonely place and violated her.

As the girl fell unconscious, Mithu fled away. Locals rescued her in a profusely bleeding condition and admitted to local health complex. She was later shifted to Gaibandha sadar hospital in a critical condition.

A case was filed with Gaibandha Sadar police station but police are yet to arrest the culprit.

Meanwhile, a judicial magistrate court on Tuesday granted three days police remand for the alleged killers of six-year-old Tasin.

Earlier SI Golam Rabbani sought five days remand but the court after hearing the prayer granted three days remand.

Accused Jahid, Pavel and Rubel allegedly abducted

Tasin from his grandfather's home at village Khamar Pirgacha under Gaibandha Sadar on July 27 and held hostage at a secret place.

The abductors demanded Tk 10 lakh ransom from the victim's grandfather Nazrul Islam Mandol over mobile phone. They also threatened to kill the boy in case of failure to pay the ransom.

Being failed to realise the ransom the abductors killed the kid by suffocation. Police recovered the body from under water hyacinth of a marshy land on July 28 and later arrested three people in connection with the killing.

On August 1, about a thousand people of Shahapara union besieged the Deputy Commissioner's office demanding capital punishment to Tasin's killers.

Sad tales of two fathers

STAR NATIONAL DESK

A shocked father died for his son in Sherpur on Tuesday while a son killed his father over a trivial matter in Kishoreganj yesterday.

In Sherpur, owner of a small shop died of cardiac failure as police arrested his 18-year-old son without warrant at Kaida village in Nakla upazila Tuesday night, reports UNB.

Mokbul Hossain, 45, who worked in Saudi Arab for more than a decade and now settled at home, fainted as police dragged his son Saifuddin out of the shop adjacent to their home at about 11:30pm.

Rushed to Nakla Hospital, doctors declared Mokbul dead.

Protesting police atrocity, villagers yesterday demonstrated in front of Nakla police station.

After preliminary investigation, assistant sub-inspector Abdur Razzak who arrested Saifuddin was closed to the Police Lines.

Saifuddin was set free soon after his father rushed to the hospital.

In Kishoreganj, a young man allegedly killed his father over a trivial matter at Jawar Purbapara village in Tarail upazila yesterday, reports a correspondent.

Police and locals said, Bulbul Bhuiyan, 78, had seven sons. Of them Haris, 30, was an addict. Yesterday Haris locked in an altercation with father over a trivial matter. At one stage he swooped on his father and chopped to death.

On information, police rushed to the spot and arrested Haris.
