Boy drowns in Panchagarh

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

An eight-year-old boy drowned in a pond at Jagdal Bazar under Sadar upazila yesterday. The boy was identified as Shishir, son of Nur-un-Nabi, a bank staff of the same area. Witnesses said the boy was playing around his house. Somehow he fell in the pond beside his house and drowned as he didn't know how to swim. Later his body was found floating in the pond. Locals rushed him to Panchagarh Sadar Hospital where the on-duty doctors declared him dead.

Man to die for killing wife

UNB, Netrakona

A tribunal here on Wednesday sentenced a man to death for killing his wife for dowry in 2002. The court also fined convict Abul Kalam, son of Emam Hossain of Digjan village in Sadar upazila Tk 50,000. According to the prosecution, Kalam used to torture his wife Kason alias Ambia, daughter of Fazar Uddin of Mulgona village in Kalmakanda upazila, for dowry since their marriage 10 years ago. On April 25 in 2002 Kalam asked Ambia to bring Tk 50,000 as dowry from her parents. As she refused to do so, he strangled her to death. Later, a case was filed by victim's brother Hossain Ali against Kalam and his two brothers. After examining the records and witnesses, Judge of the Women and Children Repression Prevention Tribunal-2 Ekramul Haque Chowdhury handed down the verdict acquitting his two brothers.

One killed in land dispute

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Jhenidah

One person killed his younger brother over land dispute here on Wednesday night. The incident occurred at Bharuapara village under Sadar upazila. Deceased Abdul Mannan, 30, was son of Golap Rahman of the village. Officer-in-charge (OC) Sagor Mia of Jhenidah Sadar police station said, during an altercation among brothers over a piece of land on Wednesday night Raja and Liton were in one side while their father sided with other brothers. At one stage, Raja and Liton hit with a bamboo in the head of their brother Abdul Mannan alias Uzir leaving him dead on the spot. Father Golam Rahman, and brothers Hafiz and Khairul were also injured. After the incident Raja and Liton fled the scene.

ALLEGED LINK WITH JAMAAT

2 Sramik League leaders expelled in Dinajpur

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

Two leaders of district Jatiya Sramik League were expelled from party yesterday for their alleged connection with local Jamaat leaders.

The expelled leaders are Abu Masum Md. Badrul Motin and Md. Ulfat Hossain, labour welfare secretary and assistant secretary of Dinajpur unit Jatiya Sramik League, according to a press release issued here yesterday afternoon.

Md. Alauddin, general secretary of Dinajpur Sramik League in the press release said that the two leaders were expelled for their alleged link with some local Jamaat leaders and anti-party activities.

However, the expelled leaders denied the allegation and alleged that they have been expelled without any prior notice.

On the other hand, Md. Alauddin said the two leaders had been encouraging the local Jamaat leaders to launch different programmes to secure release the recently arrested four top Jamaat-Islami leaders.

Power offices besieged, ransacked in 2 dists

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Angry people and students in Tangail and Bogra on Wednesday and the day before attacked and vandalised local power offices protesting erratic power supply.

Basail people in Tangail ransacked the area office of the Rural Electrification Board (REB) on Wednesday night demanding smooth electricity supply in the upazila, reports our correspondent.

The power hungry people also damaged the furniture of the office including chairs and tables, glasses of the doors and windows and beat up an employee, REB sources said.

Meanwhile, locals alleged that load-shedding of electricity has increased abnormally in the upazila recently and people of the upazila are getting only 4-5 hours of supply a day.

"We do not getting more than 2 hours of electricity at night," said a protester.

Shashi Mohan Singh, a lineman of Basail REB, said about 100 people come to the office at midnight and vandalised the office and hit him with a stick, leaving him injured. The other employees of the office managed to escape unhurt, he added.

In Bogra, six residential students of Govt Azizul Haq College were held yesterday for ransacking the power station in the town during lengthy load-shedding Tuesday night.

PDB officials said power supply in the old town was suspended for two hours due to some unavoidable reason. A group of angry residential students demanding restoration of power supply broke open the gate of 24MW power station and set on fire the furniture in the security guard room. Police rushed to the spot and dispersed the students.

Later, police raided the dormitory and picked up six students. Two of them were set free while four others were arrested upon a case filed by PDB assistant engineer Faridul Hasan, police said.

The arrestees are Shafiqul Islam, Fakhruul Islam, Joyal Abedin and Abdul Awal -- all hailed from outside Bogra.

They were sent to jail after being produced in the court yesterday.

Punishment for joining JCD confce!

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Khagrachhari

Jubo League activists led by Matiranga municipality unit President Mohammad Ala Uddin Liton closed four shops at the local market on Wednesday noon.

Locals said the Jubo League men shut the shops of Mohammad Dulal Mia, 26, Mohammad Halim Mia, 24, Abdul Malek, 27, and Abul Basher, 23 as they joined a Chhatra Dal conference in Chittagong on July 29.

District Chhatra Dal Secretary Mohammad Ibrahim Khalil condemned the incident, terming it an undemocratic act of the ruling party's youth organisation. He urged local administration to take immediate steps to open the shops.

Contacted, Jubo League President Ala Uddin said they closed the shops as the owners are involved in unsocial activities.

Officer-in-charge of Matiranga Police Station Mohammad Mizanur Rahman told this correspondent said he heard the news and asked Sub-Inspector Mohammad Mahubub to investigate the matter.

Harijan people join a human chain programme in Barisal city yesterday demanding wage hike and 80 percent job quota for them in government and non-government organisations. Similar programmes were held in other districts across the country.

HUMAN CHAINS IN DISTRICTS

Harijan people demand job quota, wage hike

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Members belonging to the Harijan community yesterday formed human chains and staged processions in different districts across the country to protest hiring of cleaners and sweepers at government and non-government organisations from other castes.

They later submitted a memorandum to the deputy commissioner demanding 80 percent job quota for Harijan people in the jobs.

In Joypurhat, several hundred Harijan people gathered in front of Joypurhat Girls' High School in the morning and brought out a procession from there to protest hiring of cleaners and sweepers in the government and non-government organisations from other castes, reports our correspondent.

After parading the main streets in the town, they formed a human chain for an hour in front of the deputy commissioner's office and also submitted a memorandum to him (DC).

Our Pabna correspondent reported that Harijan people formed a human chain in front of the deputy commissioner office at around 2:00pm.

They later submitted a memorandum to the deputy commissioner demanding 80 percent job quota for them at government and non-government organisation.

They also demanded wage hike and urged the government to give attention to 15 lakh Harijan people.

In Manikganj, a procession was brought out in the district town at noon demanding 80 percent job quota for Harijan people at government and non-government offices, according to our correspondent.

Around 300 hundred people of the Harijan Community under the banner of "Manikganj unit of Bangladesh Harijan Oikya Parishad" joined a human chain programme on the premises of the deputy commissioner's office.

Addressing a rally at the venue, Manikganj district unit President of Harijan Oikya Parishad Ripon Jamader said the government and non-government organisations are hiring people from other classes in the job of cleaner and sweeper.

He sought government's interference in this issue and demanded 80 percent job quota for Harijan people in the organisations.

Later, the protesters submitted a memorandum to the deputy commissioner. Similar programmes were held in other districts.

Students of Premier University form a human chain at Probortak intersection in Chittagong city yesterday to press home their 10-point demand, including recruitment of efficient teachers, for the CCC-run university.

Students agitate for 'efficient' teachers

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Several hundred students of Chittagong City Corporation (CCC)-run Premier University here yesterday formed a human chain to press home their 10-point demand including recruitment of efficient teachers.

They gave a 7-day ultimatum to the university authorities and submitted a memorandum to Vice Chancellor (VC) Prof. Anupam Sen to meet the demands.

The students staged the hour-long programme in front of the university main building at city's Probortak intersection at 11.00am.

The other demands include recruitment of full-fledged PhD-holder department chairmen, removal of corrupt teachers and employees, keeping campus free from all sorts of politics, easing session jam at BBA faculty, arrangement of convocation, end to admitting students beyond capacity of the university and fixing GPA 7 as minimum requirement for admission, enrichment and modernisation of the university library and providing scholarship along with discount of 25 to 75 percent for the poor students and 100 percent on special consideration.

Agitating student Rezaul Karim Roni said there is no full-fledged chairmen for English, law and BBA departments while inefficient teachers are taking classes.

During agitation VC Professor Anupam Sen, also an eminent social scientist, met the students and assured them of fulfilling the demands as early as possible.

Principal assaulted

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Noakhali

Students of Bhulua Degree College allegedly manhandled the principal yesterday as he served a show cause on a teacher.

They also brought out procession demanding removal of the principal, ransacked and locked classrooms.

Witnesses and general students said Azam Hossain, a lecturer of English department, was show caused on May 29 for his absence in the college for over one month without prior permission of the authorities.

The teacher replied to the notice on August 4 explaining reasons and regretting his inability to inform the matter in time.

But all of a sudden the students vandalised the college and assaulted me, alleged Abu Zafar Md Harun, principal of the college.

He said the show cause was issued following a unanimous decision by the college governing body.

He also accused Azam of instigating the students.

Contacted, Azam denied the allegations saying he was not aware of any protest by the students.
