One to die, 16 get life in two murder cases

STAR NATIONAL DESK

One person was sentenced to death while 16 got life on Wednesday in two murder cases in Sylhet and Panchagarh districts.

Additional District & Sessions Judge-1 of Sylhet Md. Nazir Ahmed sentenced one person to death and 14 others to life term imprisonment in a sensational murder case in Balaganj upazila, reports our staff correspondent.

Convict Azam Ali, son of Safar Ali of village Moksulpur was awarded capital punishment while his brothers Kutub Ali and Rajab Ali, Hanif Ullah, son Anjab Ullah, Shayesta Miah, Bashir Miah and Mostakin Ali, sons of Hanif Ullah, Abdullah and Nur Miah, sons of Suruj Ali, Mohit Ranjan Das, son of Manotanjnan Das, Ramzan Ali, son of Ambar Ullah, Suruj Ali, son of Hashim

Ullah, Rafique Miah, son of Ulfat Ullah, Ustar Miah, son of Haris Ullah, all hailing from the same village and Abdul Jalil from Sarbanandapur were sentenced to life term jail.

The prosecution case in brief is that Azam Ali and others swooped on Tunu Miah on 9 August, 2003 following an altercation with mutwalli (caretaker) and others over the village mosque's fund.

Azam hit Tunu Miah with a sharp weapon causing his instant death. A few others also sustained injuries during the clash. Victim's uncle Terab Ali filed a case with the Balaganj police, who on investigation, filed charge sheet on 31 March, 2004 against 16.

The judge took testimony of 17 prosecution witnesses during the trial. He passed the judgment exempting Abdul Barik as he died during the trial.

Away in Panchagarh, a court Wednesday sentenced two persons to life term rigorous imprisonment (RI) for killing a man at Boyalmari village under Tentulia upazila in Panchagarh district in 2007, reports Thakurgaon correspondent.

The convicts are Mohammad Rafiq and Mohammad Abdul Majid of the same village.

District and Sessions Judge Md. Abdus Salak handed down the verdict in a crowded court room in presence of the accused.

The court also fined them Tk.10,000 each, in default, to suffer one year more in jail.

According to prosecution, on 11 July in 2007 the two men and their accomplices engaged in an altercation over a disputed land at the village with Akabbar Hossain. At one stage they beatup Akabbar mercilessly, leaving him seriously injured.

Akabbar succumbed to his injuries on his way to Rangpur Medical College Hospital on the same day.

Later victim's wife Nurjahan filed a murder case with Tentulia police station accusing 13 people.

After investigation, the IO of the case pressed charges against the accused on 18 November in 2007.

The court acquitted Nurul Islam, Yakub Ali, Korban Ali, Moitul Islam, Shahera Banu, Mazeda Begum, Shaheb Ali, Haider Ali, Abdur Rahim, Shamim and Ziaul Islam as the allegation against them could not be proved.

Youth held for teasing girls

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Satkhira

Kaliganj Upazila Nirbahi Officer (UNO) yesterday handed over a young man to police for allegedly teasing school going girls.

Arrestee Saiful Islam, 25, is son of Noor Hossain Moral of village Bharashimla in Kaliganj upazila.

Quoting local police said Saiful Islam, also a welding mechanic, in front of his shop.

After the guardians of some girls submitted complaint the UNO asked Saiful and his father to come to his office yesterday.

Finding evidences that the accused used to stalk the girls, he handed him over to Kaliganj police.

Firearms, ammo recovered in five districts

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Rab and police in separate drives have seized at least five firearms in five districts.

Rab arrested a man with two revolvers and six bullets in Putkhali border area of Benapole yesterday.

The arrestee was identified as Farook Sardar, son of Akhter Sardar of Putkhali village.

According to Rab-6, they seized the arms from Farook's house upon a tip-off, reports a correspondent.

The elite force recovered one rifle, two bullets, one matche and an axe in Meherpur on Wednesday night.

Acting on a tip off that outlawed party cadres belonging to Purbo Banglar Communist Party (PBCP-ML) faction Lal Pataka were holding a secret meeting, a team from Rab-6, led by assistant police super (ASP) Jahidul Islam raided Pirtola field under Gangni upazila at about 12.30am.

Sensing the presence of law enforcers, the outlawed operatives fled the scene.

Later, Rab recovered the weapons, reports our Kushitia correspondent.

In Khulna, police recovered 35 revolver bullets and two magazines on Wednesday right from residence of a notorious criminal.

According to police, Mostakur Rahman Zahur Alias Zahur Sheikh, is a cadre of an underground organisation. He managed to escape from his South Central Road residence sensing presence of law enforcers, reports our staff correspondent.

Zahur was awarded life term in a case for murdering Khulna City Jubo Dal leader Anwar Hossain Anu. The murder was committed on November 12 in 1998 at Municipal Tank Road. However he got bail from a higher court in the case three months ago, police said.

In Comilla, police arrested three young men along with a firearm from Goliara area of Sadar South upazila early Wednesday.

The arrestees were identified as Syed Kamal Shuvo, 25, of Talpukurpur area of Comilla district town, Saddam, 28, of Khetishar village in Shaharasti upazila of Chandpur and Moin Khan, 26, of Golapbag area of Dhaka.

Police said acting on a tip-off they arrested the three young men along with a pistol while crossing the area by a motorcycle after midnight. A case was filed.

Another report from Dinajpur adds: A team of Rapid Action Battalion recovered a country-made shooter gun from a house at Dokkhin Basudev village in Hakimpur upazila early Monday.

Rezaul Karim, officer-in-charge of Hakimpur police station said Rab-5 members raided the house of Shahin, 21, son of Bazlur Rahman at about 3am and recovered the gun but Shahin managed to flee the scene.
