Bombs found while digging earth in Meherpur camp opened fire on the cattle

OUR CORRESPONDENT,

Construction workers found 34 bombs, probably of 1971 Liberation War period, while digging soil in Meherpur town on Wednesday.

Police recovered the bombs and claimed that 12 are still live.

According to police, one Hamidul Islam of Post Office area of Meherpur town bought a piece of land from one Lalu Mia several years

On Wednesday, Hamidul engaged labourers to build a house there.

At one stage of digging, labourers found a few bomb-like objects eight feet under the soil.

Hamidul immediately informed the police. A team from Meherpur Sadar police station led by officer-incharge (OC) Golam Rahman rushed to the spot and identified the things as bombs.

"We believe that the bombs recovered from under the soil are of Liberation War period and 12 of them are still live," the OC said.

Police said Lalu Mia was a freedom fighter. He is now living in Dhaka.

"Police is trying to contact him", the OC said.

Councils of sylhet JCD units today STAFF CORRESPONDENT,

The councils of JCD Sylhet district and city units will be held at BNP central office in the capital today.

JCD sources said the decision to hold the councils of the two units in the capital was taken apprehending factional clashes.

As many as 366 delegates from Sylhet district and city units are participating in today's councils, sources added.

The council of Habiganj district unit on July 22 was marked by clashes and vandalism. JCD central committee president and general secretary were present at the council.

On July 24, the JCD central body postponed the conference of its Moulvibazar unit, fearing clashes between the rival groups. The conference of Sunamgnaj district unit could not be held on August 10 as rival JCD men clashed each other and ransacked the venue.
