

EID SHOPPING ROCKS DHAKA

People ride on a shopping spree as Eid nears. Shoppers roam around the markets to find gift items and dresses of latest designs. Retailers remain busy meeting customers' choices. Demand for punjabi surges ahead of the festival as Muslim males wear new ones in the Eid. Women browse sari, ornaments and children's wears. People select markets and shops according to their buying capacity. Crowds are becoming bigger in the markets every day leaving the city streets congested. However, joy of shopping fades away due to the intolerable traffic jam.

Photo: ANISUR RAHMAN

