Professor Zia Hyder's second death anniversary observed

Professor Zia Hyder

AHMED HUMAYUN KABIR TOPU, Pabna

September 2 marked the second death anniversary of Professor Zia Hyder, noted dramatist of the country, who hailed from Pabna. Professor Hyder succumbed to a cardiac arrest two years ago. Founder President of the theatre troupe Nagorik Natya Sampradaya, Professor Hyder made a remarkable contribution to the Neo Theatre movement in Bangladesh shortly after the country's independence. Nagorik Natya Sampradaya was formed under his initiative in 1968. He was the troupe's President until September 1982.

Professor Hyder is also renowned for his books on theatre such as "Theatre-er Katha" (a series on the history of world theatre); "Stanislavski-er Abhinoy-tatwa" and "Natyakala-e Bibhinya Ism O Epic Theatre". Most of these are now reference books in the theatre departments of public universities in Bangladesh as well as Rabindra Bharati University in India. Professor Hyder also worked single mindedly to introduce theatre as an academic subject at the university level in Bangladesh.

Professor Hyder was the founder professor of the Department of Drama in Chittagong University till his death. He also worked as a part-time teacher at other universities.

On the occasion of Professor Hyder's death anniversary, a milad was held at his ancestral residence of Doharpara in Pabna town and at his brother's residence in the capital. Meanwhile the theater organisations of Pabna observed the death anniversary of Professor Hyder in a fitting manner.

"Professor Zia Hyder was a pioneering theatre activist. We'll try our best to keep his memory alive," Pradip Shannal Gopal, president of Pabna Drama Circle told The Daily Star.

Sushmita Sen not in a hurry to get married

PALLAB BHATTACHARYA, New Delhi

Bollywood actress Sushmita Sen is a single mother and is tired of being asked repeatedly about her wedding plans. But the 34-year-old former Miss Universe said she will definitely tie the knot one day.

Grapevine is abuzz that Sen has recently broken up with former Pakistani cricketer Wasim Akram but she refused to address the rumours. Sushmita kept mum on the whole issue saying, "it's all rubbish and I don't want to talk about it."

However the actress, who raises two adopted daughters, said she would definitely tie the knot in future.

"I will definitely get married but it is not that it has to happen at a certain age. I am tired of answering how my man will look. I will bring in the sample for everyone when I find the right person," Sushmita, who was in Delhi recently, said.

But does it get taxing at times to manage personal and professional life all on her own?

"When you have love in your life and respect what you do, you get up and do things. Yes, definitely I do feel tired but when I look around and see how privileged I am, I get going," Sushmita said.

But the year 2010 hasn't been smooth for Sushmita. She launched 'I Am She', a platform to select the Indian representative for the Miss Universe pageant. But her chosen candidate Ushoshi Sengupta failed to even make it to the top 15.

"Slumdog Millionaire" star Freida Pinto had recently said that she decided to become an actress after seeing Sushmita win the 1994 Miss Universe competition.

"Life comes as a full circle. It feels good when you become someone's idol," Sushmita said.

Ajay Devgn fined for smoking in public

Bollywood actor Ajay Devgn will have to shell out Rs 100 as fine for smoking at a public place during the shooting of his upcoming film "Golmaal 3" in Goa in May this year.

"A fine notice will be issued to the actor today following a complaint filed by the Director of Health Services," police said.

Directorate of Health Services had filed the complaint after a non-governmental organisation National Organisation for Tobacco Eradication (NOTE) had brought the violation to its notice.

Deputy Superintendent of Police, Deu Benaulikar, after verifying the fact said that police have acted through a photograph published in a local newspaper.

Meanwhile, NOTE general secretary Shekhar Salkar expressed happiness over the police action. "Although the fine is small, the actor will realise that he should not violate the Act," he said.

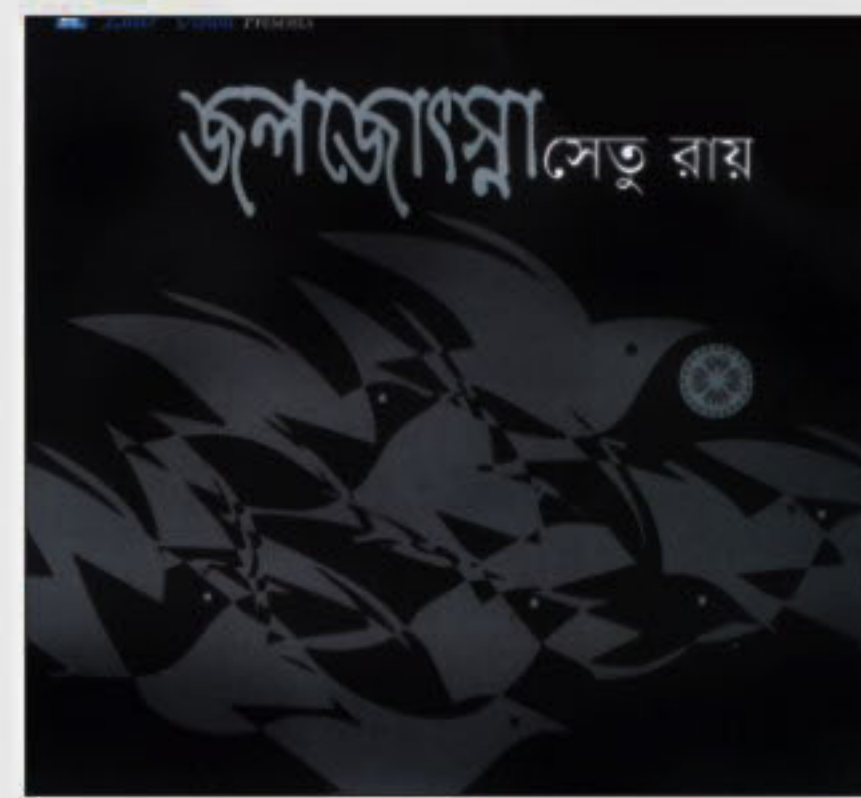

"He [Ajay] is a habitual offender and the Act needs to be stringent towards stringent offenders," he said. The "Omkaara" actor was also fined in January this year for smoking in a public place in Chandigarh.
