CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

Khulna AL expels two leaders

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Two leaders of Khulna Awami League have been expelled from the party for their alleged involvement in criminal activities.

The expelled leaders are Kazi Fazlur Rahman Mahabbat, cultural secretary of AL Khalishpur unit and Sheikh Afsaruddin, president of ward-26 unit of the party.

Action has been taken against the two for their involvement in criminal activities detrimental to image of the party, said a press release issued yesterday by office secretary of city Awami League Mahbub Alam Shohag.

The press release bears the signatures of state minister for Labour and Manpower Begum Mannujan Sufian, Khulna City Mayor and President of city Awami League Talukder Abdul Khaleque, City AL General Secretary Mizanur Rahman, President and General Secretary of Khalishpur unit AKM Sanaullah Nannu and Abul Kalam Azad, President and General Secretary of Sonadanga unit Monirul press conference at Khulna Press Club.

Islam Bashar and Shajahan Parvez.

According to press release, Kazi Fazlur Rahman Mahabbat is the principal accused in a case recorded against him on May 27 this year with Khalishpur Police Station for his direct murder of freedom fighter Altaf Hossain.

After getting release on bail following a High Court order on August 22, Fazlur Rahman and some of his accomplices threatened to kill the complainant of the murder case on September 8, the press release said.

Besides, Fazlur Rahman is also a suspect in a and a half years, the press release added.

6 Hizbul Mahadi men arrested

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Rangamati

Barkal upazila police on Monday evening arrested six members of Islamist outfit 'Hizbul Mahadi' from Suvalong Bazar while selling books on jihad at the weekly village market.

The arrestees are Sirazuddalh, 64, son of late Mobarak Uddin, Shahjahan Mistry, 60, son of Moslem Ali, Khadem Ali, 75, son of Osman Gani, Sohrab Ali, 55, son of Abed Ali, Abdur Rouf, 30, and Shahidul Islam, 27, sons of Khadem Ali.

They all hailed from Bogarbil Islampur under Barkal upazila. Being informed, Barkal police led by sub-inspector Idris Ali raided Suvalong Bazar and arrested them. They also recovered leaflets of 'Hizbul Mahadi' and jihadi books and posters from their possessions, police said.

Later they were handed over to Kotwali police at night.

The arrestees were produced before the Chief Judicial Magistrate's Court yesterday, which sent them to Rangamati jail. "We are investigating whether the arrestees really belong to any militant group or Hizbul Mahadi," said Masood-ul-Hassan, Superintendent of Police yesterday.

10 hurt as BNP, Jubo League activists clash

UNB, Munshiganj

Ten people were injured as BNP and Jubo League activists locked in a clash over a trifling matter at Kolapara in Srinagar upazila yesterday morning.

Police and locals said BNP activists were going to Kolapara union parishad building premise in a procession to accord a reception to UP chairman and Srinagar BNP leader Monin Ali.

On the way, a processionist collided with local Jubo League activist Liton at Kolapara Bazaar, triggering an altercation.

As the news spread more Jubo League activists from neighbouring villages rushed to the spot and engaged in a fierce clash with BNP processionists.

DYKE COLLAPSE IN SATKHIRA

10 Aila-hit villages flooded again

Situation worsens in Gaibandha

STAR NATIONAL DESK

At least 10 Aila-hit villages were flooded on Monday following dyke collapse in Satkhira while the flood situation in Gaibandha deteriorated yesterday.

Fulchhari upazila in Gaibandha yesterday.

At least 10 villages in Padmapukur union under Shymnagar upazila were inundated again due to breach in the embankment on the river Kabodak on Monday, reports our Satkhira correspondent.

About 50 yards of the embankment at three points near the houses of Daud Moral, Shafi Master and Dhali Bari at village Padmapukur went into the river due to heavy pressure of water during high tide.

While filing this report, the villagers were trying to reconstruct the damaged portion of the embankment on self-help basis braving heavy pressure of water.

The affected villages are Padmapukur, Pakhimara, Baintala, Khutikata, Kamalkati, Chaulkhola, Jhhapa, Kedar Bazar, Patakhali and Sonakhali in the union.

The Aila affected people who took shelter on the embankment since cyclone Aila hit the area on May 25 last year, had returned to their villages but most of those villages have been flooded again.

Over 8,000 people of almost all the villages in Padmapukur union were marooned and compelled to take shelter on high lands due to the latest flood. Contacted, Chairman Amjadul Islam of Padmapukur union parishad (UP) said local people had reconstructed six and a half kilometer embankment from Khutikata to Padmapukur soon after the cyclone. He said the WDB authorities took up projects to repair the embankment at a cost of Taka 2 crore 10 lakh but did not repair the major breaches at the worst affected Padmapukur union. In Gaibandha, flood situation deteriorated further as about 30,000 people in different shoal areas of Jamuna and Teesta basins have been marooned, reports our correspondent. According to Water Development Board (WDB) water level in all the rivers in the region swelled further. At least 20 unions in Jamuna basin have been flooded due to onrush water from upstream. Most of the dwelling huts and aman crops in shoal areas have been submerged by knee to waist deep water.

The affected villagers left the areas for safe shelter through rescue boats arranged by local NGOs.
