

Asian stocks higher

AFP, Hong Kong

Asian stocks rose on Friday as traders followed a positive lead from Wall Street while Japanese exporters extended gains on the back of the weaker yen.

Japan's Finance Minister Yoshihiko Noda lifted sentiment by saying the government would again step into the currency markets to sell the yen, just days after its first intervention since 2004.

The Japanese unit sat at 85.72 to the dollar in Tokyo morning trade, slightly up from 85.90 in New York but still sharply below the 15-year high of 82.86 on Wednesday before Japan stepped into the market.

And the euro was 112.62 yen, up from 112.15 and well up from the 107-range earlier in the week.

In Tokyo the Nikkei index closed 1.23 percent, or 116.59 points higher at 9,626.09, with exporters benefiting as the weaker yen makes them more competitive overseas.

Traders welcomed comments from Noda Friday aimed at reining in the yen.

Sydney added 0.73 percent, or to 33.6 points, to close at 4,638.9 and Hong Kong rose 1.29 percent, or 279.41 points, to 21,970.86.

But Shanghai slipped 0.15 percent, or 3.78 points, to 2,598.69.

Gold soared to end at a record high 1,281.50-1,282.50 dollars in Hong Kong.

The precious metal has marked up a series of record highs this week after the European Union warned fears of resurgent eurozone debt crisis were likely to stunt the region's economic growth prospects this year.

Singapore rose 0.30 percent, or 9.26

points, to 3,076.37.

DBS Group shed 0.43 percent to 13.94 Singapore dollars and Olam International gained 1.34 percent to 3.02.

Seoul closed 0.86 percent, or 15.50 points, higher at 1,827.35.

Taipei rose 0.72 percent, or 58.58 points, to 815.33.

The index was helped by an announcement that China had authorised four Taiwanese banks to open branches on the mainland, dealers said.

Chang Hwa Bank, one of the four, was up 3.11 percent at 19.9 Taiwan dollars while another, First Commercial Bank, was 1.79 percent higher at 19.9.

Jakarta rose 1.29 percent, or 43.02 points, to 3,384.64.

Bank Mandiri rose 3.8 percent to 6,900 rupiah, Bank Central Asia gained 2.4 percent to 6,500 and coal miner Bumi Resources rose 6.6 percent to 1,940.

Manila slipped 0.65 percent, or 25.11 points, to 3,979.35.

First Gen Corp. was down 0.9 percent to 13.16 pesos but Philippine Long Distance Telephone rose 0.2 percent to 2,524 pesos.

Kuala Lumpur closed down 0.41 percent, or 0.98 points, at 1,466.97.

Telecom giant Maxis lost 1.8 percent to 5.32 ringgit but Berjaya Land rose 8.7 percent to 1.25 and banking concern CIMB Group rose 1.1 percent to 8.27 ringgit.

But Telecom ended down 0.5 percent at 2.06.

Bangkok fell 0.13 percent, or 1.24 points, to close at 923.57.

Banpu gained 6.00 baht to 648.00 while PTT rose 1.00 baht to 285.00.

Mumbai rose 0.91 percent, or 177.26 points, to 19,594.75

points, to 19,594.75
