4 held in Kushtia, Meherpur

STAR NATIONAL DESK

A suspected outlaw was killed allegedly by his rivals in Jhenidah yesterday while police arrested four alleged cadres of an outlawed party in Kushtia and Meherpur on Sunday night.

A suspected member of outlawed Purbo Banglar Communist Party (PBCP) was murdered allegedly by rivals in Kotchandpur upazila in Jhenidah early yesterday. Police arrested another suspected PBCP member, Haider Ali, in connection with the murder, hours after the incident yesterday, reports our correspondent.

The deceased was identified as Chand Mia, 35, of Kutidurgapur village in Sadar upazila. Although he was a human hauler driver, police claimed that he was a PBCP man.

Police suspected that Chand might have been killed over an internal feud of the party.

Officer-in-charge of Jhenidah Sadar police station Sagir Miah, said a gang of PBCP men led by Kuddus Ali of Ashwasthali village, waylaid Chand at about 1:00am while he along with Haider was returning to his home from Kotchandpur on a motorbike. They picked up and slaughtered Chand and locals found his body at a nearby field in the morning, the OC added.

According to our Kushtia correspondent, police arrested four cadres of outlawed Purbo Banglar Communist Party (PBCP-ML) faction Janajuddho from different areas of Kushtia and Meherpur on Sunday night.

The arrestees were identified as two brothers Babul Biswas, 32, and Sahidul Biswas, 29, of Hidirampur, Jasimuddin, 24, of Barobaria in Mirpur in Kushtia and Enamul Haq of Hogolbaria in Gangni upazila in Meherpur.

Police said separate teams raided different places and arrested the four outlaws.

They were rounded up for their alleged connection with the abduction of Kushtia Government College student Rakibul Hasan on Tuesday.

Police earlier arrested three others including a local journalist on the incident.

A Kushtia court sent the three arrested outlaws to jail after police produced them before court yesterday.

ATTACK ON RANGPUR JOURNO PROTESTED 'Arrest culprits or face non-stop agitation'

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Rangpur

Newsmen of different national and local dailies and electronic media brought out a silent procession in the town yesterday protesting attack on Rangpur correspondent of The Daily Jugantar Mahbub Rahman on Saturday.

Started from Rangpur Press Club, the procession paraded the main roads of the town and terminated near the office of superintendent of police.

Later they gave a memorandum to Rangpur divisional commissioner Md. Jasimuddin and superintendent of police Saleh Mohammad Tanvir.

Earlier, the leaders of Rangpur Press Club issued an ultimatum of 72 hours effective from Monday to the law enforcers to arrest the criminals who stabbed Mahbub.

President of Rangpur Press Club yesterday said, "We will go for continuous movement if the law enforcers fail to arrest the culprits in next 72 hours."

Condemning the attack, the journalists on Sunday held a protest meeting on the premises of Rangpur Press Club presided by club president Sadrul Alam Dulu.

They took up a series of programmes including silent procession towards the office of police superintendent and deputy commissioner on Monday and a rally on Rangpur Press Club premises with the journalists of the northern districts on Thursday and wearing of black badge for seven days.

Meanwhile, Mahbub Rahman Habu has been undergoing treatment at a private hospital at Dhap in the town. He was critically stabbed on his back and right arm on Saturday at about 8:00pm.

Mahbub said he could not identify the persons who stabbed him but apprehended three reasons for the attack.

He said he filed a report on tender scam a few days back which involved some local ruling party leaders.

"They might hire unknown people to stab me," he said.

"Also the culprits who leaked question papers meant for the written test for appointment in public high schools in July might engage hired goons after coming out of jail on bail," he added.
