Poet Sukanta Bhattacharya's birth anniversary observed

AHMED HUMAYUN KABIR TOPU, Pabna

 Bangladesh Lekhak Shibir, Pabna district unit committee, recently observed the 84th birth anniversary of poet Sukanta Bhattacharya. A discussion was held on the occasion in Pabna Town Hall premise last Saturday night. The discussion was chaired by Rejaul Haque Shajahan, president of the organisation.

Focusing on Sukanta's poetry, the speakers said that he had articulated the harsh reality and the oppression of the poor. Though he had a short creative life, he was a man with a vision. The poet dreamt of a world free from injustice, a fit legacy for the new generation.

Among the speakers were president of Lekhak Shibir Central Committee Shantanu Kaiser; Shudhir Kumar Karmakar; Amjad Hossain and Mokbul Hossain. The speakers emphasised the need for the young to expand their knowledge of Sukanta.

Evocative lines and tones

Solo exhibition of Pakistani artist Ayesha Siddiqui at Drik

UNTITLED-VI

TAKIR HOSSAIN

Ayesha Siddiqui is a Pakistani painter and her works delve deep into various delightful forms and compositions. The strengths of her works are various evocative lines and tones. Some of her works seem to have a neat characteristic, while others appear rigid.

The painter's solo exhibition, titled "Overloaded", is now on at

UNTITLED-X

Drik Gallery in Dhaka. Her formal language ranges from disciplined abstract forms to geometric -- perhaps revealing her contemplative journey in the realm of art.

Siddiqui's works predominantly feature nature, emotions and inner vision. Varied geometrical forms, shapes and layer of colours are noticeable. The artist has tried to grasp longings and personal percep-her paintings carry vague and blurred forms as part of her experimentation and search for novelty. At times, the painter seemingly enjoys scribbles in black, white and grey.

"Untitled-II" (mixed media on canvas) shows a black encircled form with some horizontal and vertical lines. A part of the painting shows some Chinese calligraphic symbols. The ground of the painting is predominantly white.

"Untitled-VI" shows two black vertical lines and one horizontal line crisscrossing over the canvas. A splash of green is noticeable, which denotes the serenity of nature. Beige and black have been wonderfully magnified on the ground of this work.

The exhibition, organised by the Pakistan High Commission in Dhaka, ends today.
