Transport strike withdrawn

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi

Bangladesh Road Transport Workers' Federation yesterday noon withdrew its indefinite strike hours after its enforcement as government high-ups assured them of meeting their demands. The decision came following one and a half hours long meeting between Rajshahi (acting) Divisional Commissioner Swapan Kumar Roy and leaders of northern regional committee of the federation at the commissioner's office in Rajshahi. Transport workers enforced the strike at 6:00am on all routes in 16 northern district to realise their 10-point demand, disrupting road communication between the districts and other parts of the country.

Two commit suicide

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

Two people committed suicide yesterday and on Sunday in Haripur and Baliadangi upazilas of the district. A mentally challenged person committed suicide yesterday at Lokra village under Haripur. The victim, Asraf Alam, 35, was son of late Joyal of Lokra village. Officer-in-charge of Haripur Police Station and family sources said at around 11:00pm on Sunday night mentally challenged Asrafal went out of his house after taking meal. Yesterday morning the victim's family members found him hanging from a tree nearby his house. On information, police went to the spot and recovered the body. In another incident, a housewife committed suicide on Sunday at Charole Prodhanpara village under Baliadangi upazila. The victim, Alema Begum, 30, was wife of Md Amul Haque of the same village. Sub-Inspector of Baliadangi Police Station Atiqul Islam and family sources said at around 8:00am on the day, Alema took poison at her house due to family feud. She was rushed to Baliadangi health complex where she died after sometime. On information, police received the body yesterday morning and sent it to Thakurgaon Sadar Hospital for autopsy.

The arrestees were identified as Helal Uddin, 24, of village Birdal, Rahim, 28, of village Darzimati, Shamsuddin, 27, son of Mokaddes Ali of village Dalachar and Kaisar Ahmed, 28, of village Kurarpur in the upazila. Police said on secret information, they arrested Helal Uddin along with 200 grams of hemp and Rahim along with 10 bottles of liquor from Gasbari village at night. In another drive, they arrested Shamsuddin and Kaisar Ahmed along with 28 bottles of liquor from Bishnupur village the same night. The arrestees were produced before court on Sunday and the court sent them to jail hajat rejecting their bail prayers.

2 alleged snatchers held

UNB, Savar

Rab members arrested two alleged snatchers at Niribili in Ashulia police station on Sunday. The arrestees were identified as Abul Bashir Khan, 24, son of late Mobarak Ali of village Batakandi in Daudkandi upazila of Comilla and Swapan Gazi, 36, son of Shahidullah Gazi of Banpukur area of Savar Pourashava. Acting on secret information that the two snatchers were moving in the area to snatch belongings of pedestrians, a team of the elite force raided the area and arrested them along with a loaded pistol early in the morning. Another report from Sakhira adds: Police recovered one firearm and a sharp weapon from a bush beside Jetua road in Tala upazila Sunday. Police said local people found a pipe gun and a sharp knife in the bush at noon in abandoned condition and informed them. Later, the law enforcers rushed to the spot and recovered the firearm and knife.

8 Sherpur Jamaat men jailed for creating panic

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Tangail

A Sherpur court on Sunday sentenced eight Jamaat leaders and workers to two years imprisonment for creating panic among the townspeople in July this year.

The convicts are Dr Mohammad Shahadat Hossain, ameer of Sherpur district unit, Abdul Kader, ameer of Nalitabari upazila unit, Ruhul Amin, Nalitabari pourasava unit general secretary, and Jamaat workers Afsar Uddin, Moshtaque Ahmed, Abdul Awal, Lablu Miah and Parag Miah. They were tried in absentia.

The court, however, acquitted 16 others Jamaat leaders and workers, including Sherpur district unit general secretary Maulana Abdul Baten, as charges brought against them could not be proved.

According to the prosecution, Jamaat Sherpur district unit brought out a procession in the town on July 30 demanding release of three top Jamaat leaders. Following the procession, the Jamaat men created a chaotic situation in Tin Ani and Noi Ani bazar areas in the town.

Sajib Khan, assistant sub-inspector of Sherpur DB police, filed a case on July 31 against 24 Jamaat men with Sherpur Sadar Police Station under Speedy Trial Act.

Judge Nurul Alam Mohammad Nipu of Sherpur Speedy Trial Tribunal delivered the verdict.

Chevron launches alternative livelihood programme in Sylhet

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Chevron Bangladesh formally launched its alternative livelihood programme (ALP) in Sylhet on Thursday.

The programme was launched at a city community centre aiming at capacity-building and development of income-generating skills of 1,200 families residing near the company's Jalalabad gas field, says a press release.

Friends in Village Development Bangladesh (FIVDB), an NGO, will implement the project, in collaboration with Chevron.

Lawmaker Hafiz Ahmed Mazumdar inaugurated the project as the chief guest while Policy, Government and Public Affairs General Manager of Chevron's Asia-South Business Unit William A Koetzle was present as special guest.

Sylhet Sadar Upazila Chairman Ashfaq Ahmed, Managing Director of Pubali Bank Helal Ahmed Chowdhury, FIVDB Executive Director Zahin Ahmed, Chevron's Lead Advisor Community Engagement Naser Ahmed, External Affairs Manager Obaidullah al Ejaz and Jalalabad Gas Plant Superintendent Wanwit Wongpradu were also present.

Praising the initiative lawmaker Mazumdar said, "This project will undoubtedly do much for development of the area."

He urged other organisations to take similar steps for economic empowerment of the financially disadvantaged.

William A Koetzle assured all-out support to Chevron Bangladesh for smooth and successful implementation of this project.

Speaking about success of Chevron's ALP initiatives in Bibiyana and Moulavibazar, Zahin Ahmed said the beneficiaries of project in Bibiyana and Moulavibazar areas were now well on the road to economic self-sufficiency and have reached positions where they are capable in running their own businesses independently.

Naser Ahmed in the welcome speech said Chevron has been relentlessly working to develop energy sector in Bangladesh in a safe, efficient and environmentally responsible manner for its present and future generations.

Chevron Bangladesh is a subsidiary of Chevron Corporation, one of the world's leading integrated energy companies.

Girl students form a human chain in front of Faridpur Press Club yesterday as part of a campaign to create awareness about the harmful effect of stalking. Rotary Club of Faridpur organised the programme.

Two students abducted from Manikganj

Boy rescued from Kushtia, kidnapper held

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Manikganj

Two madrasa students were abducted from Satura upazila of Manikganj district on Sunday while an eight-year-old boy, abducted from a village under Sadar upazila of the district on Saturday night, was rescued from Mirpur upazila of Kushtia the same day.

The abducted madrasa students are Nazmul Ansari, 14, and Mujahid Salman, 13, of Quran Shikha department at Mohammadia Hafizia Madrasa in Satura.

The abductors phoned the families of the students on Sunday night, demanding Tk 4 lakh for release of each of the two. They also threatened to kill the students if their demand was not met.

Mozammel Haque Ansari, father of Nazmul Ansari, and Tofazzel Hossain, father of Mujahid Salman, filed two separate general diaries with Satura Police Station.

Madrasa sources said the two students remained missing since they came out of the madrasa hostel for having breakfast on Sunday morning.

Officer-in-charge of Satura Police Station Abu Taher Mia said DB police are investigating the matter.

Police rescued an abducted boy from Shamukia village under Mirpur upazila of Kushtia district on Sunday. Salman, 8, son of Harunur Rashid, was abducted from his house at Notun Bosoti village under Manikganj Sadar upazila Saturday afternoon.

Police also arrested the abductor - Robiul alias Jhinu, 35, son of Abdul Mozd of Charulia village under Mirpur upazila of Kushtia district, said Azizul Haque, officer-in-charge of Manikganj Sadar Police Station.

Acting on a tip-off, a joint team of police from Mirpur Police Station of Kushtia and Manikganj Sadar Police Station raided the village and rescued Salman from the house of the abductor. They also arrested abductor Robiul alias Jhinu.

Robiul came to Manikganj from Kushtia four months ago and was working as day labourer at the house of Khorshed Ali, Salman's grandfather, at Joyra in Manikganj Sadar upazila.
