

Trial of 23 BDR mutineers starts in B'baria today

15 more witnesses give deposition before Ctg special court

STAFF NATIONAL DESK

A special court-14 starts trial proceedings against 23 BDR mutineers of 1 Rifles Battalion at Kalikatcha under Sarail upazila of the district today.

Col SM Farhad, Comilla Sector commander, will chair the four-member special court at the battalion headquarters, said Operation Officer of 1 Rifles Battalion Major Masroor Ahmed at a press briefing yesterday, reports our correspondent.

Lieutenant Col Abu Saleh Muhammad Gulam Ambia will act as prosecutor in the special court. A representative of the attorney general and a civil lawyer will also be present during the trial proceedings.

According to 1 Rifles Battalion sources, 23 member of the battalion revolted against their officer on February 25 and 26 in 2009, expressing their solidarity with the mutineers of BDR head-quarter in Pilkahna, Dhaka.

Following a case filed with Sarail Police Station, the BDR members were arrested on May 14, 2009.

The special court in Chittagong yesterday took deposition of 15 more witnesses against 35 mutineers of 10 Rifles Battalion's Bolipara camp, reports our staff correspondent, according to our staff correspondent.

With this, the special Court-16, set up at Rifles Training Centre and School at Baitul Izzat in Satkania, has so far recorded statements of 18 witnesses.

The accused BDR men were brought to the court amid tight security. The court was adjourned until 10:30am today.

The accused also quizzed the witnesses after getting permission of the court led by Rangamati BDR Sector Commander Col Bashirul Islam, sources said.

The court will take deposition of the Prosecutor Lt Col Mohammad Rabiul Alam and the accused today, court sources said.

On Sunday, the special court framed charges against 35 jawans of 10 Rifles Battalion's Bolipara camp for their involvement in 2009 BDR mutiny.

SNIPPETS

Two cops closed

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Two policemen of Rupsha Police Station were closed to police lines here on Sunday night pending further departmental action against them for negligence of duty. They are Sub-Inspector (SI) Md Touhidur Rahman and Assistant Sub-inspector (ASI) Ruhul Amin. OC Shubhash Chandra Biswas said the policemen failed to contain rising crimes in their assigned areas. The closed cops were posted at the outpost at Icegati union under the same upazila where rising crimes created panic among the people, the OC said. On Friday night, two robberies were committed in the houses of businessmen Palash Saha and Nazir Ahmed Lashkar of Shahpara village under Icegati union. The robbers looted money and gold ornaments at gun point from the two houses while SI Touhid and ASI Ruhul Amin were on patrol duty in the area. They did not proceed towards the houses when the family members cried for help. The gang went away safely with the booties firing blank shots.

Drug peddlers arrested

OUR CORRESPONDENT, C'nawabganj

Members of the Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) arrested two drug peddlers with 6,000 Indian Buprenorphine injections at Modhuil Bazar under Patnitola upazila of Naogaon district on Tuesday. The arrestees are Mohammad Ibrahim, 30, son of late Khalil of Atua village, and Gaffar Ali, 24, son of Mohammad Ali of Modhuil Bazar. Acting on a tip off, a Rab team raided the bazar at around 1:25 pm and arrested the two while they were selling the sedative drugs, Rab sources said. Later, Rab handed them over to Patnitola Police and filed a case against them under Narcotics Control Act.

A total of 1,73,316 students across the country have registered their names for admission test against 3,370 seats under 17 units, administration sources said.

Earlier, the university authorities announced the date for test on October 30 and it will continue till November 2 this year.

Scrutiny of applications started from September 27 and it will continue till October 11 where admission seekers had to register their names with Short Message Service (SMS) of Teletalk mobile phone.

Administration sources said 19,127 admission seeker have registered names for Arts faculty under six units while 19,127 students for Law Faculty under one unit, 21,958 for Science Faculty under two units, 30,318 students for Business Studies faculty under one unit, 39,935 for Social Science Faculty under two units, 17,230 for Biological Science Faculty under three units, 7,717 for Agricultural Faculty under one unit and 10,657 students registered names for Engineering Faculty under one unit.

The highest number of students have been registered in Social Science faculty under two units. Administration sources said seat arrangement of the test will be published in due time on RU website www.ru.ac.bd.

The authorities also informed about seat arrangement through SMS to the respective students who registered names for admission test, sources said.

Meanwhile, physically challenged students of the university yesterday called upon the university authorities to consider specially for physically challenged admission seekers during test.

Students, under the banner of Rajshahi University Differently Able Students Organisation (RUDASO), also called upon the university teachers, students and employees to extend their helping hands to disable admission seekers so that they do not face problem during test.

At a rally on the campus, the students said most of the time physically challenged admission seekers face problems during test.

STABBING TWO STUDENTS ON CAMPUS

SUST expels two BCL men temporarily

A CORRESPONDENT, SUST

The authorities of Shahjalal University of Science and Technology (SUST) yesterday temporarily expelled two Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) activists on charge of stabbing two students on the campus on October 10.

The expelled students are Chayan Barua, third year second semester student of food and tea technology department and Moshtaque Ahmad, third year second semester student of social work department.

The authorities also formed a committee headed by Dr. Elius Uddin Biswas, treasurer of the university to probe the incident.

"Further steps against the two will be taken on the basis of probe report," said Mohammed Faruque Uddin, assistant proctor of SUST.

The BCL men stabbed Mithun and Omar Faruque, students of master's of architecture department, over a trivial matter on October 10.

Following the incident, Mithun and Omar Faruque submitted a complaint to the proctorial body.
