Abu Sayeed's "Rupantar" to be screened at Mumbai film fest

Ferdaus (2-L) and co-actors in the film.

PALLAB BHATTACHARYA, New Delhi

Director Abu Sayeed's award-winning film "Rupantar" will be screened at the Third Eye Asian Film Festival to be held in Mumbai later this month. "Rupantar", starring Jayanta Chattopadhyay, Ferdaus and Shakiba among others, will be shown in the Spectrum section of the festival and is the only entry from Bangladesh.

Sayeed told The Daily Star that he is likely to be present in Mumbai during the festival to introduce his film as he had done five years ago to usher in his previous movie "Sankhanad" in India's entertainment capital.

Sayeed is familiar with Indian audience as his previous films, including "Nirontor" which had won a special jury award in the International Film Festival of India in Goa in 2006, were shown in different cities of the country.

Asked how it felt to have his film being screened to the audience in Mumbai for the second time, Sayeed said, "I hope the people of Mumbai appreciate 'Rupantar'."

"Rupantar" had won the award for best film for tribals in the Bhopal International Festival last year.

Making learning fun

Two new educational shows on BTV

A scene from the TV serial "Biswash".

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

English in Action, which initiated "BBC Buzz", is launching two new television programmes -- TV serial "Biswash" and game show "BBC Janala-Mojaye Mojaye Shekha". Made by the BBC World Service Trust, both programmes will be aired back-to-back on BTV and BTB World, starting from October 16 at 2:15pm. They will be aired every week on Fridays at 6:50 pm and repeated on Saturdays and Tuesdays at 3 pm.

The aim of the programmes is to make learning English fun for children and adults.

"Biswash" is a 24-episode serial set in Bangladesh and the UK. With a focus on family and tradition, it features stories ranging from treasure hunts in Old Dhaka, to an alien looking for a wife and romance on the streets of London. The cast includes A.T.M. Shamsuzamman, Humayun Faridee, Giasuddin Selim, Shauidul Islam, Arabi Rahman, Shama Rahman, and Sameer Ahmed.

"Biswash" will be followed by "BBC Janala-Mojaye Mojaye Shekha", an educational game show which builds on the English used in the serial. The show will be hosted by Rumana Malik Munmun, with the help of comedian Kamal Bayezid and English teacher Alexandra Tyers.

Incidentally, the last episode of "BBC Buzz" will be aired tonight on ATN Bangla at 9:20 pm. The final episode will feature revisiting of some of its previous episodes.

"BBC Buzz" was launched over a year ago, with the tagline "Celebrating the best of everyday life in Bangladesh." The aim of the programme was to reflect the diversity, ambitions, aspirations and achievements of young Bangladeshis.

One of the highlights of the programme was 'Everyday Heroes', a platform for young individuals to showcase their talents.

"BBC Buzz" was funded by Ukaid, from the Department for International Development through English in Action, a major educational initiative launched to raise the English language skills of 25 million people in Bangladesh by 2017.

Singer Balam gets hitched

A CORRESPONDENT

Popular singer Balam tied the knot with Shagufta on June 26, 2009. That, however, was a small affair. The wedding reception of the couple was held at Golf Garden in the capital on October 13, 2010.

Among the guests were singers, actors and models -- Ferdous Wahid, Tapan Chowdhury, Abida Sultana, Rafiqul Alam, Mehrin, Asif Akbar, Anghi Alamgir, Emon, Srabonti, Monir Khan Shimul, Nirob, Farah Ruma, Sharmin Lucky and several other celebrities. The artistes wished the couple a happy conjugal life.

Renowned signer Runa Laila (centre) is seen with a group of children and others. The photo was taken at a cultural programme to celebrate UN Day. Zonta Club recently arranged the programme, where students of Shishu Bikash Kendra (a project for underprivileged children) performed dances and songs.

Marking Durga Puja, a five-day book fair was inaugurated at PBS Limited Bhaban premises, in Shantinagar, Dhaka. Human rights activist and Executive Director of Ain O Salish Kendro Sultana Kamal inaugurated the fair. Several leading publishing houses including Agami Prokashoni, Onno Prokash, Pearl Publications, World Children's Book and Kakoli Prokashoni have their stalls at the fair. Jointly organised by Panjeri Publications and PBS Limited, the fair will remain open from 10 am to 9 pm everyday till October 17.
