

AUTUMN-FEST IN THE CAPITAL

"Sharodotshob", the Autumn festival, at Bakultala in the capital's Institute of Fine Arts, Dhaka University.

The season had brought some colours in people's mind although it just gave a flash of its beauty this year.

However, the feathery fronds of kash and delicate sheuli flowers are here, and so the rhythm and tune of joy.

Chhayanaut celebrated the season on October 1.
