UP member shot dead in Rangamati

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Rangamati

A Union Parishad (UP) member was shot dead by armed criminals at his house at Arachharimukh village in Gayinda union of Rajasthali upazila on Monday night.

United People's Democratic Front (UPDF), an anti-peace-treaty organisation, in a press release blamed the Parbatya Chattagram Jana Sanghati Samity (PCJSS) for the killing.

They also claimed the dead UP member as a supporter of UPDF.

The deceased was identified as Sugondhi Tangchangya, 45, son of Suranjan Tangchangya of Arachharimukh.

Sugondhi was a member of ward no 6 of the union, Rajasthali police said.

A group of armed criminals came at about 9:00pm and asked the victim to come out of his house.

As soon as Sugondhi came out of the house, the criminals sprayed bullets on him, leaving him dead on the spot, police said.

"We recovered the body from the spot in the [yesterday] morning and sent it to Rangamati General Hospital for autopsy," said Rezaul Haque, officer in-charge of Rajasthali Police Station.

"We are trying to find out the reason behind the killing," he added.

Shantideb Chakma, coordinator of Rangamati district unit of UPDF, yesterday in a press release blamed the PCJSS for the killing.

He also demanded immediate arrest of the killers.

Sajib Chakma, assistant information and publicity secretary of PCJSS, central committee, yesterday denied the allegation.

It might have occurred due to internal feud of UPDF, he alleged.

DEFYING OCT 15-24 BAN

12 fishermen fined for catching hilsa in Galachipa river

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

A mobile court has fined 12 fishermen as they were caught while catching hilsa in Burangourango River in Galachipa upazila of Patuakhali district through violating the government's ban on the act during the peak breeding period from October 15 to 24.

Galachipa Upazila Nirbahi Magistrate Laskar Tajul Islam fined the fishermen Tk 1000 each on Monday afternoon.

Earlier on the day, a team from upazila fisheries office and police arrested them from Char Najir area when they were fishing on the Burangourango River, said police and upazila fisheries officesources.

The fined fishermen are Selim Majhi, 30, Jamal Majhai, 32, Nurul Islam, 35, Rahijul Islam, 28, Shahabuddin, 25, Rahmat Majhi, 30, Jahirul Sikder, 26, Zakir Hossain, 22, Polash, 20, Masud, 33, Jhantu Mia, 30, and Mohiuddin, 35. They are from different villages under Chafashing upazila in Bhola district.

"The government imposed a ban on catching hilsa from October 15 to 24 to facilitate breeding of the popular fish in a disturb-free environment. A plenty of hilsa is coming to different rivers in the coastal areas to lay eggs in the reproduction season," said Qamrul Islam, Galachipa upazila fisheries officer.

Taking the opportunity, a group of fishermen are trying to get large catches but it would be harmful for the fish, he added.

The Daily Star on October 17 ran report titled 'Hilsa fishing continues defying ban', narrating the harmful effect of a group of fishermen's random catching of hilsa in different rivers including the Burangourango.

Urged by the drive to save aman paddy from saline water, people render voluntary service to repair an embankment at Kalagachhia village in Galachipa upazila of Patuakhali district.

Voluntary service to repair embankment, save aman

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

People of remote Kalagachhia village in Galachipa upazila of Patuakhali district have started voluntary work to repair a flood control embankment to save aman paddy from salty water.

Over a hundred villagers including women of Kalagachhia village on Saturday started work to repair the embankment that developed breaches in at least 10 points within two kilometres due to the October 6-9 tidal surge and heavy rainfall.

Over 1000 acres of agricultural land will be saved from salty water from nearby rivers after completion of the work, said Kalagachhia union unit of Awami League Secretary Kamia b Chowdhury, who led the work.

"Through the damaged points of the flood control embankment salty water from adjacent rivers and canals enter aman paddy fields twice a day during high tides, causing damage to aman plants on a large area of land. Villagers have started repairing the damaged embankment on voluntary basis to save their paddy fields from salty water that enter their paddy fields from adjacent rivers and canals," said former lawmaker Yaqub Ali Chowdhury, also a resident of the area.

Eighteen kilometres of flood control embankments were destroyed and more 55-km embankments partly damaged in seven upazilas of the district due to the recent tidal surge and heavy rainfall, said Siddiqui Rahman, executive engineer of Water Development Board.
