

EID RETURNS WITH THE MESSAGE OF SACRIFICE

The people of Dhaka have no choice but to wait till the last moment to celebrate Eid with their near and dear ones in the village. As such, even the thought of long queues to avail the launch, train and bus cannot hold back the homebound crowd of this overpopulated metropolis. As the city witnesses a temporary exodus of its inhabitants, thousands of cattle heads are put on sale at makeshift open bazaars for people to buy their animals which will be sacrificed on the day of Eid-ul-Azha.

Photo: ANISUR RAHMAN

