

ILLEGAL DAM ON WATER BODY IN RANGPUR
One killed, 50 hurt as villagers clash with fish farm goons

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Rangpur

At least 50 people were injured, including seven by bullets, in clashes between villagers and hired goons of a private fish farm at Chatra beel (water body) under Mithapukur and Pirganj upazilas yesterday.

from the locals of Chatra and its adjoining villages, land administration recently conducted an enquiry and found that the water body belongs to the government. The enquiry also found that the fish farm illegally constructed the dam across the beel for fish cultivation.

On Sunday, about 500 villagers removed the dam from the water body. But, the farm authority again started construction work of the dam yesterday afternoon, police said. When the locals put up resistance against the construction of the dam, a series of clashes took place between villagers and hired goons of the fish farm that left at least 50 villagers injured.

admitted to Rangpur Medical College Hospital and Pirganj and Mithapukur Upazila Health Complexes. Locals alleged the proprietor of the farm grabbed the water body in 2004 for fish cultivation despite protests from locals. Moinul Hoque, a villager of Chatra, said local administration backed the illegal grabbing during that period.

BOMBING OF KUSHTIA MP'S HOUSE Prime accused on 4-day remand

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kushiya

A Kushiya court yesterday granted four days remand to Zahidul Islam Zahid, the prime accused of bomb attack inside the house of Awami League lawmaker Afaz Uddin Ahmed on the night of November 13.

The bomb attack inside the house at Taragonia under Daulatpur upazila of Kushiya left three people killed and two others injured. After the incident, Afaz Uddin's son Ejaz Ahmed filed two cases with Daulatpur Police Station--one under the Explosives Substances Act and the other for murder--accusing eight people, including Siddique Rahman and Ahadul Islam, who carried bombs to the lawmaker's house and were also killed in the blasts.

Police arrested Zahidul soon after the incident. Two other accused in the cases--Jamirul Islam Moru alias Boma Moru and Azharul Islam Mintu--were later arrested. Moru was arrested on Friday night at Walia village under Lalpur upazila of Natore district while Mintu on Saturday on the confessional statement of Moru.

During preliminary interrogation, Moru admitted to his involvement in the bomb attack, police said.
