

44 Dinajpur mutineers arrested on court order

STAR NATIONAL DESK
Forty-four of the 61 mutineers of Dinajpur-2 Rifles Battalion were yesterday arrested as per order of the special court-13 while charges against 42 rebels of Mymensingh Sector headquarters and 45 Rifles Battalion under the sector will be framed on January 15 next year.
Our Dinajpur correspondent reported that the special court, headed by Dinajpur Sector Commander Col Saleh Ahmad, started trial proceedings against 75 mutineers, including 17 of the sector headquarters, yesterday morning. Other members of the court are Lt Col Mahaful Alam and Major Didar Al Latif.
At the beginning, the complainant, Subedar Major Shamsul Alam of Dinajpur 2 Battalion, urged the court to issue arrest warrants against 44 other accused in the mutiny case that he filed in May last year. The court then ordered arrest of the accused.
After filing of the case in May last year, police arrested 31 mutineers of Dinajpur sector and 2 Rifles Battalion under the sector and sent them to jail. Of them, 17 are from the battalion while the rest 14 from the sector headquarters.
During the trial, JCO Enamul Haque of Dinajpur sector headquarters, pressed mutiny charges against 13 out of 14 accused. Five of the 75 accused, including one from the sector headquarters, will face trial at civil court.

Subedar Major Shamsul Alam told the court that 61 BDR members of Rifles Battalion-2 revolted against their officers on February 26 last year. They looted firearms and ammunition from armoury and fired blank shots.
The special court, set up at Dinajpur sector headquarters, adjourned trial proceedings until 10:00am today. Prosecutor Lt Col Ershad Hossain and Deputy Attorney General Biswajit Roy were present.
In Mymensingh, the special-17 yesterday fixed January 15 next year to frame charges against 42 mutineers of Mymensingh Sector headquarters and 45 Rifles Battalion under the sector, reports our correspondent.
Prosecutors Major Ahmed Yusuf Jamil and Major Shaker Ahmed read out charges against the accused in the court.
They alleged that the accused BDR members took part in the mutiny on February 26, expressing solidarity with the mutineers of BDR headquarters at Pilkhana in the capital.

They took control of the sector and battalion headquarters, looted firearms and ammunition from armouries and fired blank shots, the prosecutors said.
The three-member court headed by Col Md Nazrul Islam Sarker, Kushtia sector commander, adjourned the trial proceedings of the case until January 15. Two other members are Lt Col Gazi Md Salah Uddin and Maj Mohammad Ashfaq Hossain.
Our Netrakona correspondent adds: The special court-17 yesterday read out the charge against 53 mutineers of 16 Rifles Battalion headquarters.
Headed by Kushtia Sector Commander Col Md Nazrul Islam Sarker, the court, set up at the battalion headquarters in Netrakona, started trial proceedings at noon. Two other members are Lt Col Gazi Md Salah Uddin and Major Ashfaq Hossain.
At the beginning, Major Mohammad Kamruzzaman Milon of the battalion brought charges against 53 BDR rebels. Lt Col Shamsuzzaman, commanding officer of the battalion, is the prosecutor, court sources said.
The court took the charge into its cognisance and asked the authorities concerned to produce all the 53 accused in the court at 8:30am today.

4 housewives murdered

STAR NATIONAL DESK
Four housewives were murdered in Natore, Sylhet, Thakurgaon and Naogaon districts on Friday and Thursday.
In Natore, a housewife died instantly when a bullet accidentally pierced her throat while her husband was cleaning his revolver at his house at Rannoigari village in Lalpur upazila on Friday afternoon, reports our correspondent.
The deceased was identified as Arifa Khatun, 22, wife of alleged criminal Wasim, 28, of the same village. Arifa was admitted to a private clinic at Gopalpur where the doctors declared her dead.
Lalpur police arrested Wasim at midnight and recovered a revolver from him.
The body was sent to hospital morgue for autopsy. A case was filed against five people yesterday.
In Sylhet, police recovered the hanging body of a housewife from her bedroom at Shikarkha village in Jointapur upazila on Friday.
The deceased was identified as Kontina Begum, 26, wife of Mondol Mia of the same village, reports UNB.

Police said they recovered the body in the morning and sent it to hospital morgue for autopsy.
The victim's husband claimed that Kontina committed suicide following a family feud.
But Kontina's father Abdul Nur of the same village alleged that his daughter was killed by her in-laws following a brawl.
In Naogaon, police recovered the hanging body of a housewife from her bedroom at a rented house near Baludanga bus stand in the district town on Thursday night.
The deceased was identified as Shabana Begum, wife of police constable Fazlur Rahman, working in Naogaon Police Lines and hailed from Konabari village in Bagmara upazila of Rajshahi district.
Parents of Shabana alleged that her in-laws tortured her to death following a family feud and hanged the body to prove that she had committed suicide.
A housewife was beaten to death on Friday allegedly by her in-laws at Bojrpara village under Sadar upazila in Panchagarh.

The killers than hung her body from a beam of a room to prove it as a case of suicide, alleged relatives of the victim.
Police arrested victim's mother-in-law Rabeya Begum on charge of her involvement in the murder while other three members of the family including husband, father-in-law and brother-in-law went into hiding after the incident, reports our Thakurgaon correspondent.
Police said Rubaiya Sultana Rupia, 23, daughter of Sadequul Islam alias Debaru of Magura Senpara village under the same upazila was married to Anwarul Haque, 27, son of Mohimuddin of the same village about four years ago.
After her marriage she was tortured three on and often on trivial pretences. On the fateful day Rubaiya was beaten to death by the members of her in-laws, according to the case statement.
Rubaiya's father Sadequul Islam filed a murder case accusing four persons including her husband Anwarul Haque, 27, father-in-law Mohimuddin, brother-in-law Hasibul and mother-in-law Rabeya Begum.

Ruling party men beat up journo, student

STAR NATIONAL DESK
Ruling party cadres seriously injured a journalist in Manikganj while BCL activists beat up a student at Rajshahi University on Friday night.
In Manikganj, a journalist was beaten up by ruling party cadres at Singair Bazar on Friday night, reports our correspondent.
Victim Mobarak Hossain was Singair upazila correspondent of the daily Jai Jai Din.
Witnesses said, AL cadres numbering 6-7 including Monju, 28, son of Abdul Monnaff of Purba Basta village and Salam, 45, son of Minaj Uddin of Dhalla village of Singair upazila, attacked Mobarak with iron rods and sharp weapons at around 10:30pm at Singair bazar where he was talking with a man.
Mobarak was taken to Singair Clinic Diagnostic Centre with head injury.
Tusher Kumer Barman, a doctor of the clinic, said Mobarak received serious head injury. He was given six stitches in his head.
Earlier at 7:00pm, the AL cadres beat up Ismail Hossain Khan, owner of Shahriar Pharmacy of Basta Bazar.
Journalists of Manikganj Press Club and Manikganj district unit of Bangladesh

Journalist Association condemned the attack on journalist.
They demanded immediate punishment to the culprits.
In another incident, a group of Chhatra League (BCL) activists of Rajshahi University (RU) unit on Friday night beat up a student of the university, reports RU correspondent.
Sources said BCL activists, led by Emdad Hossain, an eighth semester student of Management department and also a resident student of Shaheed Habibur Rahman Hall, seriously beat up Nazmul Haque of the same hall and also a fourth year student of Social Work department in front of the hall at around 8:30pm.
Hearing the news, Nazmul's friends rushed to the spot and rescued him. They took Nazmul to the university medical centre for treatment.
Nazmul alleged that Emdad along with a group of BCL cadres beat him as he collided with Emdad while entering mosque of the hall for Juma prayers.
He said the BCL cadres also threatened him to drive out of the hall.
BCL activist Emdad Hossain later said the incident took place due to misunderstanding with Nazmul.

Sugarcane crushing starts in two mills

STAR NATIONAL DESK
Two mills in Panchagarh and Jamalpur started crushing sugarcane on Friday.
According to our Thakurgaon correspondent, Panchagarh Sugar Mills went into production on Friday afternoon.
Lawmaker of Panchagarh-1 constituency Mazharul Haque Prodhan inaugurated it as the chief guest at a function on the mill premises.
The production started in time and the season saw a bumper sugarcane production in the district this year, said officials.
Managing Director (MD) of the mill ABM Arshad Hossain said the production target was fixed at 6,000 tonnes by crushing 80,000 tonnes of sugarcanes.
He said the farmers have cultivated sugarcane on 8,525 acres of land against a target of 10,000 acres this year which is higher than the previous year.
Last year sugarcane was cultivated on 5,850 acres of land in the district and 4000 tonnes of sugar was produced by crushing 65,000 tonnes of sugarcane.
Over seven crore taka was distributed among the farmers to boost sugarcane cultivation. Besides, about one crore taka was distributed as subsidy among Space Trans Plating (STP) cane farmers under the sugar mills, the MD said.

Director (Planning & Development) of Bangladesh Sugar and Food Industries Corporation Nurjahan Begum, also additional secretary, was present as the special guest at the function with ABM Arshad Hossain in the chair.
Our Jamalpur Correspondent reports: Sugarcane crushing at Dewanganj Jheal Bangla Suger Mill in the district started on Friday evening.
Lawmaker of Jamalpur-2 constituency Alhaj Faridul Haque Khan Dulal inaugurated the 53rd crushing of the mill throwing sugarcane into the cane-career.
The mill authority this season fixed a target to produce 9,600 metric tonnes of sugar by crushing of 1 lakh 20 thousand metric tonnes sugarcane, officials said.
Chaired by Managing Director of the mill Abdul Khalek, Faridul Haque Khan MP was chief guest at the function. It was also attended by Ashraf Ali, secretary, sugar and food industries corporation, Islampur upazila chairman Abdul Bari Mandol and UNO of Dewanganj upazila Aminul Haque.
