STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bengal Gallery of Fine Arts has organised a two weeklong retrospective exhibition titled "The Limitless Luminosity of Art" of master artist Safiuddin Ahmed. The show was inaugurated on December 10. At the exhibition, his drawings (pencil, crayon, charcoal) watercolours and oil paintings are on display.

of Art in 1936, where he started realistic oil paintings. During this period, he won a number of awards for his meticulous oil paintings. Later, he gave his full attention to engraving, dry point and etching. He was influenced by some veteran Indian printmakers -- Mukul Dey, Abdul Moyeen and Romen Chakravarty.

Safiuddin has done very few works and he devotes much time to a single piece of painting and print. Line is another essential part of his paintings. His lines have created a distinct language where one can learn about his perseverance, longing and devotion to art.

In "The Path to Dumka-2" and "Dumka Shal Forest" one finds many trees in black, filled with leaves and branches, appealing a tranquil nature and its unending beauty. The simple use of shades of blue and black impart an unusual lyricism.

Mona Lisa's eyes: The real Da Vinci Code?

The numbers and letters are not visible to the human eye but have to be viewed under a microscope.

Vinceti said. Vinceti also said the number 72, or possibly an L and the number 2, are also visible in arch of the bridge that is seen in the background of the painting.
