The 33 rd Bangladesh Chemical Congress

BANGLADESH Chemical Society (BCS) and Department of Chemistry of the JU jointly organised 33 rd Bangladesh Chemical Congress 2010 at Zahir Rayihan auditorium of the campus. This year the motto of the congress was 'Chemistry for Friendly Environment'. Dilip Barua, Industry Minister was also present at the programme.

Around 700 chemists of the country and 20 from Germany, Sweden, the UK, America, Australia, Japan, North Korea, Thailand, India, Malaysia and Brunei attended on the conference.

Honorary fellowships were awarded to South Korean renowned chemist Professor Jung-II Jin and former president of Bangladesh Chemistry Association Professor Dr Mesbauddin Ahmed for their outstanding contribution in the field of Chemistry.

Chemists from home and abroad presented their research papers on environment pollution, waste management, problems and solutions and new inventions of Chemistry. In addition, problems regarding the usage of chemicals in the industry were discussed. The role of the policy makers on this issue was highlighted.

COURTESY: JU

Click and Caption Contest

DECEMBER 14, Save the Children, UK organised a photo contest, where people tell a story of positive change through their submitted pictures. The pictures that are submitted will tell the story of hope and change that affects us positively and change the world positively. A panel of experts will look through the final pictures in the exhibition and three winners will be selected. Every year nearly nine million children die due to diseases that a completely curable. EVERY ONE is Save the Children's global campaign to save millions of children's lives. If one believes in the value of every child, the power of collective action and determination to succeed, then this contest is for them where they can come forward and show how they can save the children for everyone. A picture is worth a thousand words and the submitted pictures in this contest can tell the story and show us the way on how we can save the children, every one of them. To participate and learn more about the contest, everyone is welcome to visit their facebook page http://www.facebook.com/EVERYONEBangladesh.

Notice

Dear Readers,

Star Campus has decided to come up with a 'Letter Page' very soon. Please send us your feedbacks regarding Newsroom, Spotlight, Star Chat and all other features. We would like you to limit your opinions to 150 words. Moreover, we request you to send us your full name and address along with your contact number whenever you decide to write for us. Also, please let us know the name of the institution if you are representing any. You can email us at: starcampus@gmail.com or can send us your thoughts at our mailing address:

The Daily Star, 64-65 Kazi Nazrul Islam Avenue, Dhaka-1215.

Star Campus Team