International Workshop on Contemporary Changes in Environment and Development at BAU

A two day International Workshop on Contemporary Changes in Environment and Development was concluded at the Conference Hall of Faculty of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology of Bangladesh Agricultural University (BAU) on December 13.

Professor Dr. M. A. Sattar Mandal, Vice-Chancellor, BAU was present in the inaugural session as Chief Guest. Prof. Dr. S.M. Altaf Hossain, Consultant, livelihood Improvement of Farming Community in Haor Area through System Approach (LIFCHASA) project BAU presided over the session.

Dr. ANDO Kazuo, Team Leader, International Network Professor Dr. Muhammad Salim, chief organiser, workshop organising committee delivered the welcome address. Dr. Hayashi Taiichi also spoke on the session.

Courtesy: BAU

The two days workshop was jointly organised by BAU and International Networking Project, Kyoto University, Japan. A large number of participants from Japan, Myanmar, Thailand and Indonesia including Bangladesh attended the programme.

IBA Graduation 2010 in the Hall of Fame

IBA Graduation 2010 was organised by Institute of Business Administration (IBA), University of Dhaka, at Hall of Fame, Bangabandhu International Conference Centre (BICC).

The Graduation Ceremony 2010 included certificate giving of EMBA Batch 3, MBA Batch 42 and BBA Batch 14.

Vice Chancellor Professor A.A.M.S. Arefin Siddique in his speech as the chief guest of the IBA Graduation Ceremony emphasised the need of quality business education to maintain sustainable economic growth to meet our development agenda.

Mr. M. Anis Ud Dowla, President, Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce and Industry (MCCI) & Chairman, ACI Group, as the Graduation Speaker, reiterated the commitment of the industry in supporting the No. 1 business school in the country which has been feeding the business consistently with most efficient talent pools.'

The special guest of the ceremony Professor Mijanur Rahman, Treasurer of the University of Dhaka, underscored the need for innovation in business education which should be market driven and contemporary in nature.

Courtesy: IBA

Professor G.M. Chowdhury, Director of Institute and Chairperson of the IBA Graduation Ceremony 2010 in his deliberation highlighted the need for global accreditation of Business Schools, collaboration through faculty and student exchange programmes and improvement through updating of curriculum and emphasis on research.