of BIZ BEE for their role in printing a university business magazine. Registrar of the Independent University of Bangladesh Tanvir A Khan, Lecturer of North South University Faisal Chawdhury and faculty members of BRAC University were also present as special guests. The inauguration programme was followed by a concert.

The main story of 'Vision' is on business in Bangladesh for young entrepreneurs titled "Small Business for Bigger Bangladesh" offering views of various business personalities. This article covers businesses, which do not need a huge sum of capital but are suitable for the beginners and is designed to inspire the students to bring about revolutionary changes in the business scene of Bangladesh. Another article in the magazine titled "SAARC; The Land of Enormous Business Opportunities" talks about having one single state instead of eight different countries in SAARC, a scheme expected to help the people of SAARC voice their ideas worldwide on negotiation and trade-related issues diminishing political disagreement among them and fetch better foreign investment.

Interviews of Mahbubul Mokaddem Akash, Professor, Department of Economics, University of Dhaka and Air Cdre (Retd) Ishfaq Ilahi Chaudhury NDC, PSC, Registrar, BRAC University are also included in this article. Other contents to look out for in the magazine are "Advent of the Guardian Angel_ social business", Adventure Land_ revolution of tourism in Bangladesh", "Root Biz of Bangla_ agriculture", " Is Share Market Going in the right Direction", "Lucrative Business for Young Entrepreneurs", " Happening around the Globe" and many more. There is a biography on Sir Fazle Hasan Abed, "A Beautiful Wits" where an up-close story of his life has been revealed. Taking entertainment into account and to add a touch of comic to the magazine, business cartoons and puzzles are also there.

BIZ BEE plans to publish 'Vision' after every six months and the magazine will not be for sale. It will be distributed among all the universities and corporate houses of Bangladesh. The organisations supporting the 1st issue of 'Vision' were Aarong, Basic Real Estate Ltd, Buildtrade Group, Al-Hasan Jewelers ltd and United Commercial Bank ltd. This issue will also be distributed among the participants of South Asian Universities Youth Festival -05 which is going to be organised in Bangladesh hosted by BRAC University.

