'Shun hartal, work for country'

DU CORRESPONDENT

A number of non-government organisations yesterday urged ulamas to call off the hartal on December 26.

In a written statement, they also made the call to work for the development of the country and shun the politics of hartal.

The statement says the hartal was called protesting an education policy that is secular.

Bangladesh Muktijoddha Ainjibi Parishad, Jatiyo Gonotantrik League, Muktijoddha Palli Society, and Muktijoddha Bohumukhi Unnayan Samity signed the statement.

Similar statement against the hartal was sent by Bangladesh Nari Mukti Andolon, Bangladesh Nagorik Samaj, Bangladesh Garments Sramik Trade Union Kendra, Dakkhin Bangla Jubo Kallayan Samity, Mehendiganj Unnayan Sangram Parishad and Dakkhin Bangla Chhatra Kallayan Samity.

Dhaka food festival begins

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The festival on traditional Dhaka food started yesterday to conclude the celebration of the 400th year of Dhaka as capital.

Dhaka Kendra and Spellbound jointly organised it on a Kalabagan sporting club ground with the assistance of city group, says a press release.

The festival titled "City Group Taste of Dhaka 2010" has been arranged to keep up the historic tradition of Dhaka. Around 50 famous restaurants of Dhaka city is participating in it.

State Minister for Law Mohammad Kamrul Islam, Dhaka University professor Muntasir Mamun, and Asma Zerine Jhumi, MP spoke at the inaugural ceremony among others.

The festival will be open for all today and tomorrow from 10:00am to 9:00pm.

Bangladesh's victory!

Internet

The Government has taken an initiative to provide internet connectivity to all Union Parishad offices. 100 Union Parishads have already gotten connected to the internet. As a result, the activities of Union Parishads will become faster and more dynamic. Under this initiative the dream of digital Bangladesh will come one step closer to reality.

We are earning victories everyday as we march on in the journey of progress.
