

Asian shares mixed amid Europe debt fears

AFP, Hong Kong
Asian shares were mixed in cautious trade on Tuesday amid growing fears of a resurgent eurozone debt crisis, with Portugal resisting what it called "rumours" that it needs a bailout.

In Australia deadly floods in the northeast added to pressure on the Sydney index after news that nine people were killed and 66 left missing in the latest deluges.

Tokyo slipped 0.29 percent, or 30.36 points, to 10,510.68 and Sydney edged down 1.6 points to 4,710.7, well off earlier lows.

Seoul gained 0.36 percent, or 7.51 points, to 2,088.32 and Hong Kong ended 0.99 percent, or 233.08 points, higher at 23,760.34.

Shanghai closed up 0.44 percent, or 12.24 points, at 2,804.05 after heavy losses on Monday.

Markets followed their counterparts in Europe and America lower as traders fretted about European sovereign debt ahead of Portugal, Spain and Italy's bond issues this week.

Worries resurfaced after reports that Germany and France had pressed Lisbon to accept a bailout, after Ireland and Greece last year had to call for help from the International Monetary Fund and European Union.

The euro was given a boost in Tokyo forex trade after Finance Minister Yoshihiko Noda said Japan would buy bonds to be issued by the European Union this month, aimed at providing support to troubled members.

But the unit soon fell back as excitement waned.

The single currency spiked to $1.2990 in Tokyo morning trade from $1.2920 immediately after Noda's comments, but fell back to $1.2953 by the afternoon, lower than $1.2955 in New York late Monday.

Against the Japanese currency, the euro traded at 107.51 in the afternoon, up from 107.10 in New York. The dollar was at 83.09 yen, up from 82.67 yen.

Investors in Sydney pulled out of insurance companies as floods in Queensland continued to wreak havoc, with flash floods smashing through Toowoomba and other mountainside towns.

On oil markets New York's main contract, light sweet crude for delivery in February, rose four cents to $89.29 per barrel and Brent North Sea crude for February was down 18 cents to $95.52.

Gold closed at $1,376.50-$1,377.50 an ounce in Hong Kong, up from Monday's close of $1,373.00-$1,374.00.

In other markets:

Singapore closed up 0.38 percent, or 12.22 points, at 3,241.49.

DBS Group rose 0.14 percent to Sg$14.74 while Wilmar Inter national fell 0.53 percent to Sg$5.66.

Kuala Lumpur closed flat, edging down 0.58 points to 1,562.94. Bangkok edged down 0.46 percent, or 4.64 points, to close at 1,013.39.

Mumbai fell 0.14 percent, or 27.78 points, to 19,196.34, its sixth straight day of losses, in choppy trade.
