Dr. Muhit received PhD from University of London
Pro-Vice Chancellor of the University of South Asia recently received PhD from the University of London. The topic of his PhD thesis was "Developing a comprehensive approach to blindness and disability in children: Epidemiological and qualitative studies". Dr. Muhit's ground breaking research identified for the first time that there are 40,000 children who are blind in Bangladesh and 12,000 of them are blind from a treatable condition-cataract. Dr. Muhit's PhD research was supervised by Prof. Clare Gilbert and his thesis was examined by Professor Nora Groce and Cathy Williams. Dr. Muhit is the founder of Child Sight Foundation and he is also a visiting faculty at the University of London. University of South Asia congratulates Dr. Muhit and wishes him a long and productive career in disability research and teaching.
