Criminals in guise of in-laws loot house

Robberies at houses of expatriates

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Criminals in guise of relatives took away cash and valuables in Madaripur on Tuesday while robbers looted three houses in Sylhet and Manikganj on Monday and the day before.

Two criminals in guise of relatives looted valuables and cash worth Tk 4 lakh at Goalkanda village under Shibchar upazila of Madaripur on Tuesday night, reports our correspondent.

Neighbours said, at around 9:00pm on Tuesday night one Ali Hossain along with his friend came to visit 'distant in-law' Saudi Arabia expatriate Kuddus Talukder's house with three bottles of mango juice and some biscuits.

After dinner, Ali Hossain asked his mother-in-law to serve the juice among the members of the house. Drinking the juice, Kuddus, his wife and two sons, one of them a candidate of SSC examination this year, fell unconscious.

Later, the criminals looted four tolas of gold, Tk two lakh, four mobile sets and other valuables from the house.

Robbers looted cash and valuables worth Tk 28 lakh from two houses in Golapganj upazila of Sylhet leaving six people injured early Monday, reports UNB.

Police quoting local sources said, an armed gang numbering 20/25 swooped on the house of Kuwait expatriate Hafiz Safar Uddin of Sunampur village at dead of night.

They looted cash Tk 65,000, thirty-five tolas of gold ornaments and 10 mobile phone sets from the house taking the house members hostage at gunpoint.

Four of them -- Shafiq Uddin, Faysal, Akter Mia and Safar Uddin's expatriate brother-in-law Abdul Basit -- were beaten up by the robbers as they tried to resist the gang.

In another incident, a gang of 10/12 entered the house of one Nimar Ali at Mukitola village in the same upazila cutting the grill of the house at around 3:30am.

They looted cash Tk 3.80 lakh, 24 tolas of gold jewelry and three mobile phone sets injuring Nimar Ali's sister Saleha and expatriate brother Abdur Rahim.

In Manikganj, robbers looted valuables from a teacher's house, keeping his family hostage at gunpoint, injuring three, one in bullet at Dhakajira village in Shibhalaya upazila early Monday.

Police said a gang of 20/25 stormed into schoolteacher Alauddin's house breaking open the door at about 1:00am.

They looted 20 tolas of gold ornaments, 40 tolas of silver ornaments, cash Tk 60,000 and two cell phone sets, tying the family members with rope, keeping them hostage at gunpoint.

The robbers also mercifully beat up Alauddin, his wife Latifa Begum, his daughter Kaniz Fatema and fired gun shot at his son Sheikh Farid, leaving him seriously injured.

The injured were admitted to Sadar hospital from where Farid was shifted to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) as his condition deteriorated.

In Pabna, police arrested four people on Tuesday in connection with Sunday's robbery at a house at village Jorgasa in Santhia upazila.

During robbery, by the gang killed a woman and injured four others, reports our correspondent.

The arrestees are Salauddin alias Shondo, 32, son of Abdul Hai of village Sundarkandi, Kamal Hossain, 30, son of Adesh Sardar of village Hapania, Kop Housh, 32, son of Amzad Hossain of the same village and Rafikul Islam, 35, son of Md. Fakir Pramanik of village Jorgasa in Santhia upazila.

Investigation officer (IO) of the case, Md. Abdul Gaffar, also a sub inspector (SI) at Santhia police station said police arrested them as prime suspects from their villages early Tuesday.

On Sunday, a gang of robbers attacked the house of Sunil Kumar Sarkar at village Jorgasa. The robbers numbering 15 to 20, hacked five members of the family leaving Ela Rani Sarkar, 45, wife of Sunil Kumar Sarkar dead on the spot.

Huge polythene bags seized in Barisal: 9 shops fined

Sold openly in Noakhali markets

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Barisal

A taskforce led by a magistrate of environment directorate, raided Hathkhola and Bazaar Road areas in the city on Monday and seized about 15 maunds of banned polythene sheets and shopping bags.

The team fined nine wholesale shops over Tk. 2 lakhs. The owners of the shops are Shibu Lal Banik, Kanchan Mir, Santosh Saha, Bishwanath Sarkar, Debobrata Saha, Bijoy Sarkar, Mohiuddin Ahmed, Swapan Saha and Khalil Khan.

Officials of law enforcing agencies and BSTI accompanied the high-powered team of environment directorate during the drive.

The fined businessmen, however claimed they were marketing polythene lawfully and of approved standard.

Mohammad Qamruzzaman, administrative magistrate and leader of the high-powered team of environment directorate refuting the claim of the businessmen said his men seized polythene items only which were banned by the authorities.

In Noakhali, banned

polythene bags have staged a comeback, reports our correspondent.

Market source said, polythene shopping bags are being used openly and at random at almost all the kitchen markets, confectioneries, general stores and grocery shops in the town posing a serious threat to public health and environment.

A section of businessmen are supplying the bags to the retailers defying the government ban under the nose of the law enforcers.

The shopkeepers and vendors have started using the banned shopping bags again towards the end of last year in the absence of proper monitoring and drive by the authorities concerned, the sources said.

Nowadays use of polythene bags has become a common phenomenon in the town markets for lack of mobile court operation, Zulu Mia, a trader at Municipal Market in the town said.

Vegetable vendor Md Alamgir at Majidee Bazar kitchen market said, they were compelled to use polythene bags as there was no alternative.

"We need a cheaper, durable and available alternative to replace the polythene bags," he said.

2000 kg OMS rice seized

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Brahmanbaria

At least 2000 kilograms of Open Market Sale (OMS) rice were seized from a trader's house at Uchaliapara village under Sarail upazila on Tuesday night.

According to Sarail upazila nirbahi office sources, rice trader Md. Salim Mia of the village allegedly collected the rice from different dishonest OMS dealers of the area.

There he started replacing the sealed bags of OMS rice with other ones in a bid to sell them in local market at high price.

Acting on a tip-off, a team of officials headed by Sarail upazila nirbahi officer (UNO) Md. Helal Uddin raided to the spot. But Salim instantly fled the scene.

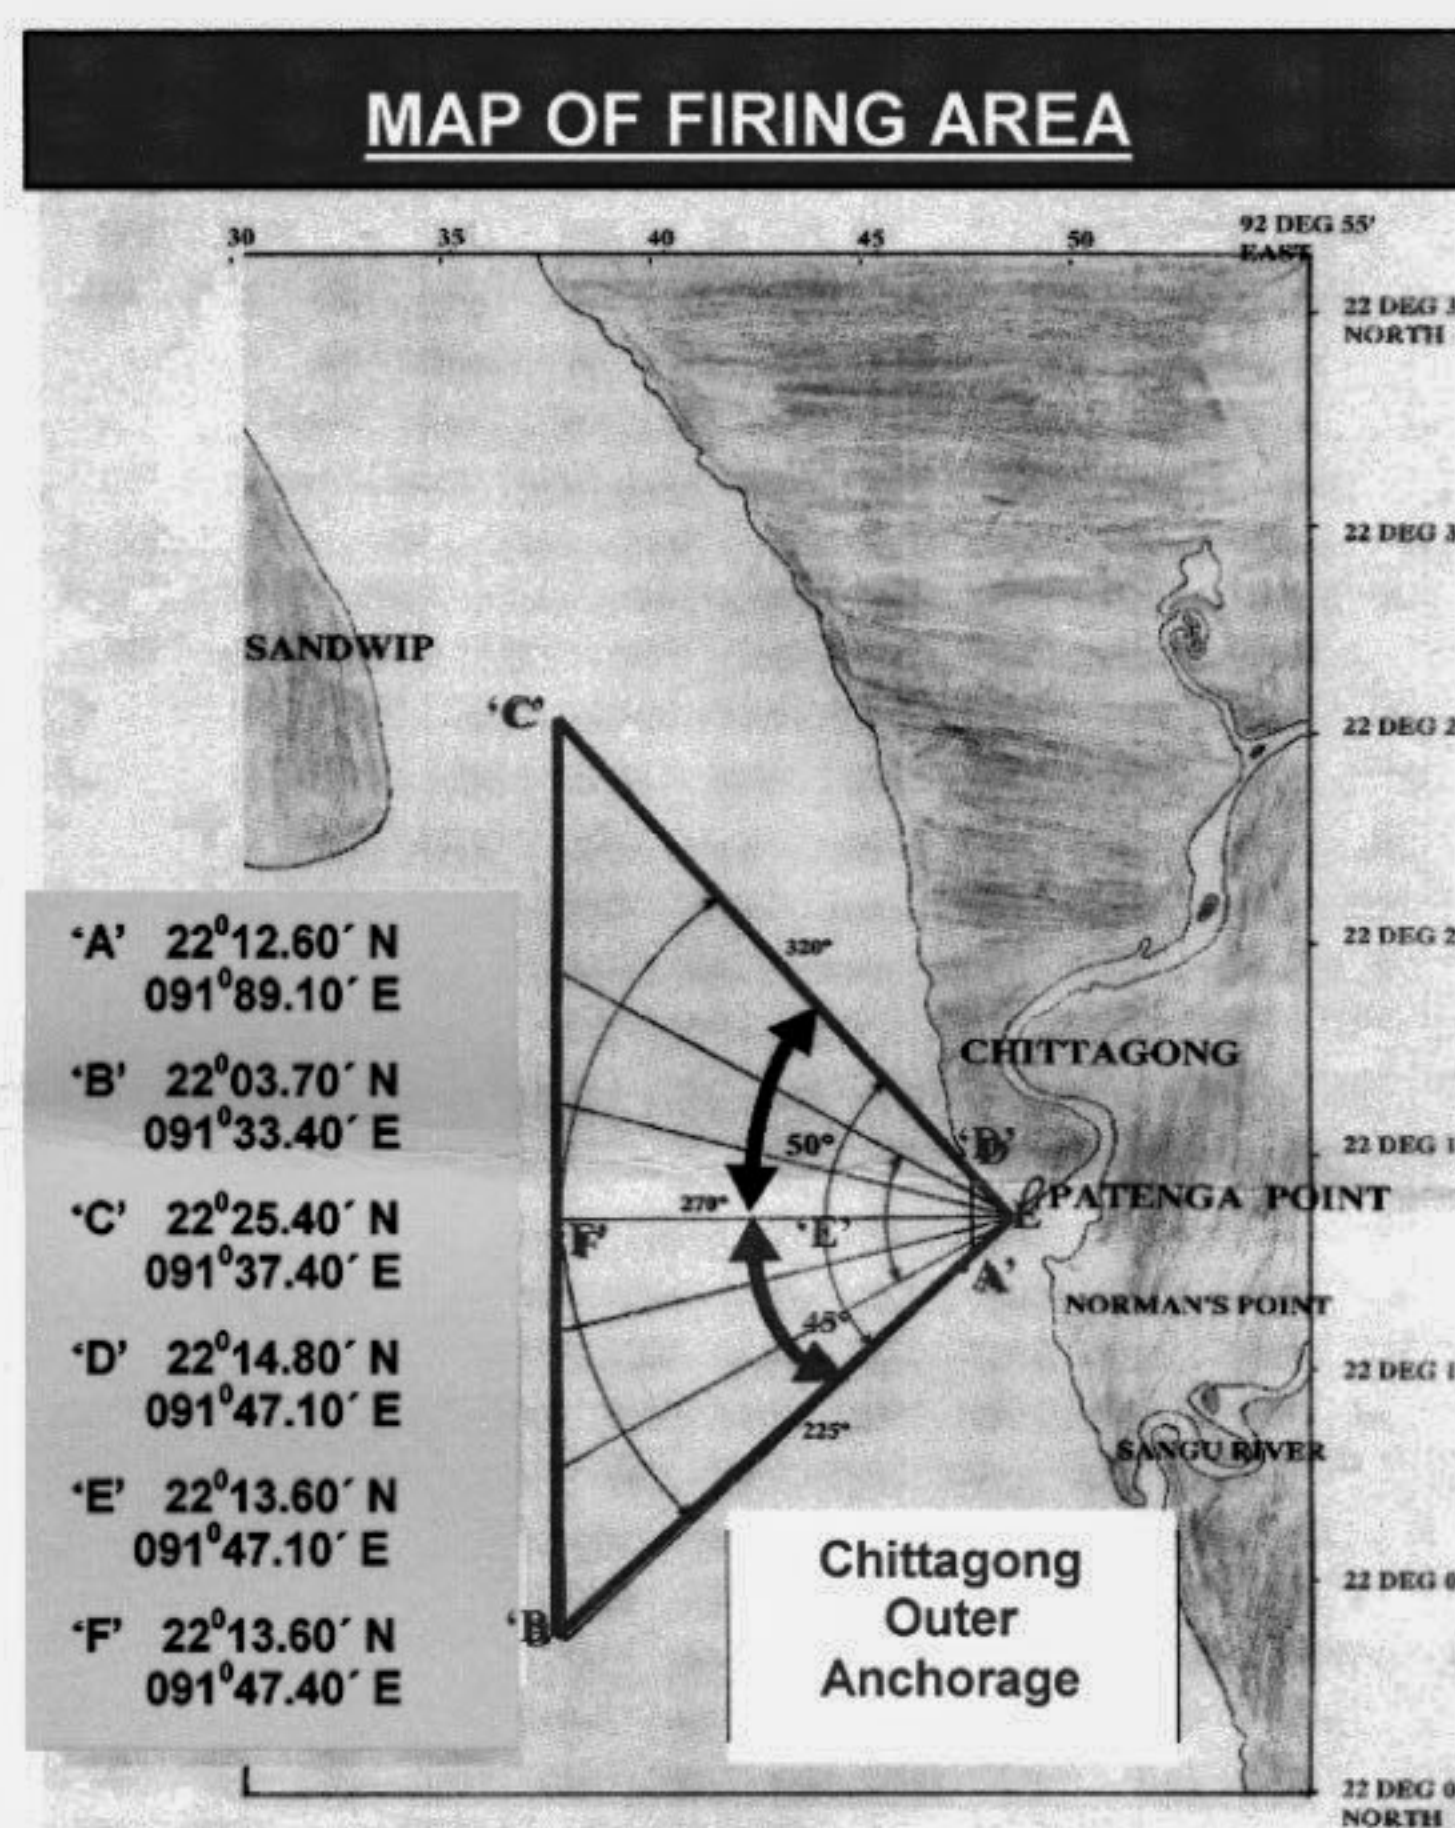

The seized OMS rice was taken to Sarail police station and stored on its premises.
