

95 jailed for mutiny, two acquitted in Rangamati

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Rangamati

A special court sentenced 95 jawans of 9 and 18 Rifles Battalions of BDR to prison yesterday for their involvement in the mutiny on February last year.

The Bangladesh Rifles (BDR), later renamed Border Guard Bangladesh (BGB), convicts are to serve prison terms ranging from a minimum of four months to a maximum of seven years. In addition to jail terms, the court also fined each convict Tk 100.

Out of 95 convicts, 74 are from 9 Rifles Battalion while 21 are from 18 Rifles Battalion.

The court acquitted two accused Subedar Md Shah Alam and Havildar Selim Reza of 18 Rifles Battalion as the allegations brought against them could not be proved.

The court led by Col Zahedur Rahman, started delivering the verdicts at 9:00am and continued for half an hour, later resumed at 2:00pm. The trial proceedings were set up at Mechanical Transport Shed in the town's BGB sector headquarters.

During the first half of delivering verdicts, seven out of 21 convicts of 18 Rifles Battalion were jailed for a highest of seven years while the remaining were sentenced to shorter terms of imprisonment.

In the second half, six of the convicts out of 74 from 9 Rifles Battalion were sentenced for highest seven years rigorous imprisonment while the others were sentenced to different terms of imprisonment.

Nayek Subedar Shahadat Lohani of 18 Rifles Battalion and Junior Commissioned Officer Md Rezaur Rahman of 9 Rifles Battalion filed two separate cases against the jawans for rebelling against their officers on February 26, 2009.

Earlier, all the jawans had claimed their innocence and appealed to the court to acquit them from the 'false case'.

Lt Col Sayedus Saqlain and Maj Golam Mostafa Al-Mamun were present as members of the court while deputy attorney general Kazi Izarul Haque Akand was the representative of attorney general.

SAVED FROM DARK LIFE: Fifteen Bangladeshi young girls, trafficked to India and sold to a gang in Bombay two years ago, return through Benapole land port after the Indian Border Security Force handed them over to Bangladesh authorities yesterday, following initiatives of two rights organisations of the neighbouring countries.

15 victims of trafficking return home from India

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Benapole (Jessore)

Fifteen woman victims of trafficking returned home on Saturday from India through the Benapole check post.

Border Guard Bangladesh (BGB) Benapole check post commander Liakat Hossain said the human traffickers took the hapless women to India alluring them of giving good job two years ago through various border points. Later, they were sold to a gang in Mumbai.

Acting on a tip-off, Mumbai police rescued the girls and they were sent to jail.

Oasis, a voluntary organisation of Mumbai recently released them on bail and kept them at a shelter home. They informed the matter to Rights Jessore, a human rights body in Jessore.

Indian Border Security Force (BSF) handed over the 15 women to the BGB members yesterday afternoon.

All the women hail from Satkhira and Jessore districts of the country.
