

Mob set fire to houses of 2 Khulna 'robbers'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

An angry mob at Bastuhara Colony in Khalishpur of Khulna city on Saturday evening set fire to the houses and shops of two alleged members of the gang who committed robbery at a Grameenphone dealer's office on Shaltala Road in Bagerhat town on Thursday night.

Over a hundred residents of Bastuhara colony attacked the houses of the two alleged robbers Belal Hossain Bilu and Zahid Sheikh, said eyewitnesses and police.

When locals surrounded the gang at Bibha Enterprise, a dealer of Grameenphone, during the robbery on Thursday night, Belal and Zahid managed to escape while five others, caught by the angry mob, were beaten to death on the spot, police said.

Residents of Bastuhara Colony sharply reacted when the body of Ahmad Ali, one of the five killed robbers, was taken there for burial from Bagerhat General Hospital morgue on Saturday evening.

Ahmad Ali's sister Fatema Begum told police that absconding Belal Hossain is ringleader of the gang that committed robbery in the Grameenphone dealer's office.

The five killed 'robbers' are Riazuddin, 25, Khan Afsaruddin, 50, Mohammad Imran, 22, Ahmad Ali, 40, and Hafizur Rahman, 25.

Police recovered Tk 23 lakh 89 thousand and 662 out of Tk 25 lakh looted by robbers from the Grameenphone dealer's office and seized a shortened gun, a pistol, a bullet and a dagger from the gang's possession.

Sheikh Ashikur Rahman, manager of Bibha Enterprise, lodged an FIR on Friday accusing nine unidentified people in connection with the robbery.

Police filed two cases -- one under Arms Act against nine people and the other against over a thousand unnamed people in connection with mob attack on robbers.

Gang leader of Jamalpur bank robbery held

A CORRESPONDENT, Jamalpur

Police arrested a gang leader on charge of looting about Tk 45 lakh of Uttara Bank of Jamalpur branch in the wee hours of February 3 from Satkhira.

The arrestee, Abdur Rab of village Pirojpur in Assassuni upazila of Satkhira district, is the leader of a gang involved in such crimes across the country, said ASP (Jamalpur Sadar Circle) Saifur Rahman who nabbed the criminal from his village house.

"Abdur Rab and his accomplices allegedly looted Tk 44 lakh and 97 thousand from Jamalpur branch of Uttara Bank Ltd. He is also accused of looting Satkhira branch of Islami Bank in 2007," the ASP said.

On January 26 night, criminals looted Jamalpur branch of Uttara Bank opening the lock of the vault.

Following a case filed with Sadar police station, earlier police arrested security guards Ramij Uddin and Saiful Islam, who were on duty in the bank that night, on suspicion of their involvement in the incident.

Drama circle Ityadi and The Daily Star jointly staged two street dramas titled 'Aloy Fera' and 'Kushumer Joi' in Patuakhali town yesterday marking the 40th anniversary of Bangladesh's independence as well as the 20th anniversary of the newspaper.

Brac staff found dead

UNB, Chandpur

Police recovered the body of a Brac employee from the roadside near Fishery Gate in Sadar upazila on Friday morning.

The deceased was identified as Saiful Islam, 30, an accountant of Tora Munshirhat brunch of Brac office under Faridganj upazila. He hailed from Torpurchandi village in Sadar upazila of the district.

Police said, locals found the body lying beside the Chandpur-Comilla highway and informed them.

Later, a team rushed to the spot and recovered the body that bore stab injury marks.

16 forced to work at brick kiln freed

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

A mobile court has fined a brick kiln in Baulal upazila Tk 25,000 for using fire-wood violating rule.

The Rab team, which accompanied the mobile court, also rescued 16 labourers on Wednesday from their confinement in the brickfield, Aruna Enterprise, said Rab sources.

Lt Commander Nuruzzaman of the Rab team said the workers were tortured and forced into working in the brickfield.

The mobile court headed by magistrate and upazil nirbahi officer of Baulal Mahmudur Rahman also had the company pay the arrears of the workers.

The workers are Amirul, 35, Taher, 32, Jamal, 28, Bakul, 25, Siddik, 36, Aynal, 29, Shahidul, 30, Eunus Ali, 33, Abdus Sattar, 34, Sabur, 26, Salim, 29, Nader, 30, Kanak, 30, Kamal, 35, Sujon, 28 and Abdul Latif, 36. They are from Kushtia and Rajbari districts.

A case was filed with Baulal Police Station in this regard.

At least 32 people took job in the brickfield owned by Sajal Kumar Howladar, a local Awami League leader at Sinerakathi village of Baulal, about four months ago on a contract of Tk 400 pay per day, said Nuruzzaman. But after a few days, the owner and his men denied paying the amount.

The Rab member said when the labourers wanted to give up their job, a group led by Bazlur Rahman, manager of the brick, forced them to continue work.

Amirul, one of the labourers, told this correspondent that for two and a half months, the workers were restricted to the field during the day-time and at night they were confined to a small room.

Rafiq Pramanik, one of the 32, after fleeing the place had made a complaint with the Rab unit, Nuruzzaman said. Then four to five Rab personnel in disguise took up the job in the field to investigate the matter.

Following their firsthand knowledge, they raided the brickfield and carried out the rescue operation.

Owner of the brickfield, however, said, "I hired the labourers through Kamal Sardar, a broker, and paid him Tk 3.80 lakh in advance for them. All allegations against me are false. Some enemies of mine must have given false information to Rab to harass me."
