

Asian markets rise

AFP, Hong Kong

Asian stock markets rose on Monday thanks partly to the easing of Egypt's political crisis, although there was caution about upcoming Chinese inflation data while oil prices remained high.

Tokyo's Nikkei climbed 1.13 percent, or 119.89 points, to 10,725.54, despite data showing Japan's economy contracted 1.1 percent in the last quarter of 2010.

The data confirmed Japan had lost its 42-year-old spot as the world's number two economy to China.

The market partly responded to a modest gain on Wall Street on Friday, where optimism about US economic prospects was compounded by relief at the resignation of Egyptian leader Hosni Mubarak after weeks of unrest.

Sydney's S&P/ASX 200 ended 1.12 percent, or 54.9 points, higher at 4,935.8, its highest finish in 10 months.

Shanghai's Composite Index ended up 2.54 percent, or 71.80 points, at 2,899.13 after data showed exports and imports surged in January.

Exports increased 37.7 percent from a year earlier, while imports jumped 51 percent, the General Administration of Customs said.

Hong Kong's Hang Seng ended the session up 1.28 percent, or 292.14 points, at 23,121.06, rebounding from a 4.5 percent fall over the course of last week.

In the United States on Friday the Dow Jones Industrial Average rose 0.36 percent, the broader S&P 500 index advanced 0.55 percent and the tech-rich Nasdaq rose 0.68 percent.

On oil markets, Brent North Sea crude was above the $101 dollar mark, analysts said.

Brent North Sea crude for April advanced 64 cents to $101.58 on its first day of trade.

New York's main contract, light sweet crude for March delivery, was up eight cents at $85.66 per barrel in the afternoon.

The dollar eased against the yen in Asia, weighed by selling from Japanese exporters.

The dollar traded at 83.17 yen in Tokyo afternoon trading, down from 83.42 yen in New York late Friday.

The euro fell to $1.3535 from 1.3546, and to 112.58 yen from 112.99.

Gold ended at $1,360.00-$1,361.00 an ounce in Hong Kong, down from Friday's close of $1,363.30-$1,364.30.

In other markets:

Singapore rose 0.88 percent, or 27.15 points, to close at 3,104.42.

Kuala Lumpur closed up 0.72 percent, or 10.81 points, at 1,505.33.

Power giant Tenaga rose 3.2 percent to 6.14 ringgit, banking RHB Capital added 1.5 percent to 8.01 and gaming Genting Malaysia gained 1.2 percent to 3.33 ringgit.

Bangkok rose 1.84 percent or 17.50 points to 967.07.

Mumbai rose 2.67 percent, or 473.59 points, to 18,202.20.

Engineering giant Larsen and Toubro rose 6.7 percent to 1,660.75 rupees, on news that it bagged an 11 billion rupees ($245 million) order from the Gujarat State Electricity Corp to set up a gas-based power plant.

CITYCELL

Citycell has recently signed a corporate agreement with Sonali Bank to provide Zoom Ultra service, Citycell's mobile internet service, to the bank at a programme in Dhaka recently. Golam Anjumanarul Islam, head of business of Citycell, and Md Sahid Hossain, deputy general manager of the bank, inked the deal. Mehboob Chowdhury, chief executive officer of Citycell, and Md Humayun Kabir, Sonali Bank CEO, were also present.

CSE

MA Mamun, chief executive officer of Chittagong Stock Exchange (CSE), attends a training programme for compliance officers of CSE members in the port city on Sunday. Bangladesh Institute of Capital Market and CSE jointly organised the event.
